PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction (the "Motion") [ECF No. 25] against the against the fully interactive, e-commerce stores¹ (the "Online Marketplaces") operating under the seller aliases identified in Schedule A to the Complaint and attached hereto (collectively, the "Defendants"). After reviewing the Motion and the accompanying record, this Court GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion.

This Court finds Plaintiff has provided notice to the Defendants in accordance with the Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") entered on June 12, 2025, [ECF No. 16], and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(a)(1). This Court also finds, in the absence of adversarial presentation, that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants because the Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Florida. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that the Defendants have targeted sales to Florida residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including to the State of Florida, and intentionally offering for sale women's apparel and fashion items ("Infringing Products") that are substantially similar to those that Plaintiff sells in connection with the use and display of Plaintiff's federally-registered, copyright-protected photographs ("Plaintiff's Copyrights").

In this case, Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence that each of the Defendants' ecommerce stores on the online Amazon.com marketplace platform is reaching out to do business with Florida residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores that use, without authorization, Plaintiff's Copyrights. See Brees Decl., Exhibit 1 to the Motion for TRO [ECF No. 11-1]. Through the Defendant's e-commerce stores, Florida residents can and do purchase competing products copying the subject matter of Plaintiff's Copyrights; these lead consumers to think they are purchasing Plaintiff's legitimate products as shown in Plaintiff's Copyrights. Id. Accordingly, the Court finds that Plaintiff has a likelihood of success on the merits of its Copyright Infringement and Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act claims for relief.

The Court additionally finds that issuance of the requested injunctive relief would be in the public interest by protecting consumers from being misled by Defendants' unauthorized use of Plaintiff's Copyrights on their internet stores to entice the purchase of the competing products.

This Court also finds that the injunctive relief previously granted in the TRO should remain in place through the pendency of this litigation and that issuing this Preliminary Injunction is warranted under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65. Accordingly, this Court ORDERS that:

1. The Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be preliminarily enjoined and restrained from:
