HONG KONG LEYUZHEN TECHNOLOGY
CO. LIMITED,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE INDIVIDUALS, CORPORATIONS,
LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES,
PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED IN SCHEDULE "A" HERETO,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:25-cv-05909

COMPLAINT FOR COPYRIGHT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff, Hong Kong Leyuzhen Technology Co. Limited, ("Plaintiff"), by and through its counsel, the Bayramoglu Law Offices, LLC, submits the following Complaint against the individuals, corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships and unincorporated associations identified on Schedule "A" hereto (collectively "Defendants") and hereby alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff is the owner of all rights, title and interest in and to the copyright registrations issued by the United States Copyright Office for certain images related to its Rotita Brand product line (the "Rotita") used in connection with the promotion and sale of women's apparel, which bear the following federal registration numbers [REDACTED], [REDACTED] (the "Copyright Protected Images").

2. Plaintiff has filed this action to combat online copyright infringers who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill and valuable copyrights, including the Copyright Protected Images, to sell competing products of inferior quality by representing them to be authentic Rotita products through the unauthorized display of the Copyright Protected Images on their online storefronts (the “Online Stores”) maintained on the TikTok Shop sales platform identified on Schedule “A” (the “Online Platform”). Defendants additionally offer their competing products at substantially reduced prices from the authentic Rotita products offered by Plaintiff.

3. Plaintiff exclusively utilizes the Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertising, display, and sale of its authentic Rotita products on its wholly owned, operated, and controlled company website. Plaintiff does not advertise, market, display, or sell its authentic products on the Online TikTok Shop Platform.

4. Defendants likewise advertise, market, and/or sell their competing products embodying Plaintiff’s Copyright Protected Images by reference to the same photographs and 3-D artwork as associated with genuine Rotita products, which causes further confusion and deception in the marketplace. Unique identifiers common to Defendants’ internet stores, such as design elements and similarities in Defendant’s unlawful use of the Copyright Protected Images, establish a logical relationship between them and suggest that Defendants’ illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Attached hereto as Exhibit “3” are the true and correct images infringed by Defendants next to the federally registered images of Plaintiff. This conclusion is further supported by evidence and admissions made by similar online copyright infringers that have been the subject of numerous other enforcement actions brought by Plaintiff in this judicial district. This evidence and admissions include, but is not limited to, similarly situated defendants stating that they obtained Plaintiff’s copyright protected images from the same sources, that the sourcing of their counterfeit and/or knock-off products were secured from the same manufacturing source, and that identical supply chains were employed to fulfill consumer orders.

5. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' unauthorized use of its Copyright Protected Images to sell inferior, competing products, as well as to protect unknowing consumers from purchasing competing products over the Internet. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through consumer confusion, dilution, and tarnishment of the Rotita reputation and goodwill because of Defendants' actions, and therefore the company seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over the unfair deceptive trade practices claim in this action that arise under the laws of the State of Illinois pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) because the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

8. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants, since each of the Defendants directly targets consumers in the United States, including those within the State of Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores accessible through Defendants' Online Stores as identified in Schedule "A", which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

9. Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which residents can purchase inferior products that are advertised for sale using, without authorization, Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images. Each of the Defendants has targeted sales from Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including to the State of Illinois, accept payment in United States currency, and, on information and belief, has used Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images, without authorization, to sell competing products of lesser quality to residents of the State of Illinois.

10. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in the State of Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(2) and 1400(a) because Defendants have committed acts of copyright infringement in this judicial district and do substantial business in the judicial district.

THE PARTIES

11. Plaintiff Hong Kong Leyuzhen Technology Co. Limited is a corporation organized under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("China") and is the owner of the Copyright Protected Images asserted to have been infringed in this action by the Defendants. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is the true and correct copy of the federal copyright registration issued for the Copyright Protected Images.

12. Plaintiff founded its Rotita Brand in 2009, which is dedicated to women's fashion apparel and serves consumers in the United States and throughout the world.

13. Between 2021 and 2022, Plaintiff designed, caused to subsist in material form, and first published the Copyright Protected Images on its website located at the company's designated website employing the Rotita Brand in its URL and over the years has worked hard to establish success and recognition for high quality women's apparel internationally and in the United States.

14. Plaintiff has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting its Rotita Brand and, specifically, the Copyright Protected Images. As a result, Rotita is widely recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as being quality products.

15. Plaintiff owns all rights, including without limitation, the rights to reproduce the Copyright Protected Images in copies, to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted works, and to distribute copies of the copyrighted works to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending, the protected works.

16. Plaintiff has neither licensed nor authorized Defendants to use the Copyright Protected Images and none of the Defendants are authorized retailers of Plaintiff's genuine products.

17. Defendants are individuals and business entities who, reside mainly in the China or Hong Kong. Defendants conduct business throughout the United States, including within the State of Illinois and in this judicial district, through the operation of Defendants' Online Stores identified in Schedule "A", and has offered to sell and, on information and belief, has sold and continues to sell competing products to consumers within the United States, including in the State of Illinois and in this judicial district, by displaying, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images on their Online Stores.

18. As discovered through Plaintiff's other copyright infringement enforcement actions commenced in this judicial district, Defendants infringing the Copyright Protected Images have access to these copyrighted works from the same or inter-connected source. Moreover, Defendants sales operations utilize the same textile manufacturing sources, which provide identical, counterfeit fabrics and patterns employed in the authentic Rotita products offered by Plaintiff and employ the same distribution networks to fulfill retail orders for their competing or counterfeit products.

19. Specifically, several Schedule “A” defendants and counsel in other pending copyright enforcement actions in this judicial district have asserted that they obtained both the unauthorized images and the competing products from the same manufacturing source. In fact, defense counsel made this assertion before Judge Kennelly at in-person oral argument on Plaintiff’s motion for entry of a preliminary injunction. See Hong Kong Leyuzhen Tech. Co., Ltd. v. P’ships & Unincorporated Ass’ns Identified on Schedule “A”, Case No. 1:24-cv-02939-MFK-BWJ [Dkt. No. 80.] In response, the Court specifically found that Plaintiff had satisfied the joinder requirements of Rule 20(a)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on the presence of an alleged common manufacturing source. [Id.]

20. In short, these competing sales operations require one or more textile manufacturing factories, the sourcing of identical, counterfeit fabrics and patterns, distribution networks to fulfill retail orders for these competing goods, and the end sellers needed to promote and solicit sales. Plaintiff’s copyright infringement allegations against the Defendants in this action, and in all other actions pending in this judicial district, simply could not be accomplished alone. Rather, the level of counterfeit operations presented to this Court requires the Defendants to rely upon the same, coordinated, common black market manufacturing supply chain to successfully promote, sell, and fill the orders placed because of their infringing conduct.

21. In addition, Defendants go to great lengths to conceal their identities and the full scope of their operations making it virtually impossible for Plaintiff to learn Defendants’ true identities and the exact interworking of their network.

22. Defendants are alleged to be acting in concert through a coordinated counterfeit product sales conspiracy or network that misappropriates Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images depicting its authentic Rotita products and use them in advertising inferior, unauthorized products for sale through their Online Stores to deceive consumers into believing their purchases are from an authentic and authorized source.

23. In furtherance of their acts in concert or conspiracy, Defendants have accomplished their sale of competing products through the unauthorized use of Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images by relying upon one or more common supply chain sources and/or manufacturers that provide the Defendants with textile products matching those offered by Plaintiff and that could not otherwise be physically fabricated individually by the Defendants.

24. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff asserts that Defendants, and each of them, is jointly and severally liable for all claims for relief asserted herein based on information and belief that they are acting in concert or acting pursuant to a conspiracy. Moreover, given these allegations, Plaintiff asserts that all conduct set forth herein has been conducted as part of the same series of transactions involving the unauthorized acquisition of Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images, the improper display of same on Defendants' Online Stores for the purpose of deceiving consumers about the authenticity of products being purchased, the use of common supply chains and/or manufacturers, and the procurement of Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images, without authorization, from the same, similar, or related sources.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

25. The success of Plaintiff has resulted in competition, counterfeiting and intentional copying of the company's products, and the sale and offering for sale of said products through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images. Upon information and belief, Defendants conduct their illegal operations through their Online Stores maintained on the Online TikTok Shop Platform. Each Defendant targets consumers in the United States, including in the State of Illinois, and sells and offers for sale competing products through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images.

26. In similar cases involving multiple counterfeiters, defendants operating internet stores intentionally conceal their identities and the full scope of their infringing operations to deter plaintiffs and Courts from learning their true identities and the full extent of their illegal infringing operations.

27. In this case, through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images on their Online Stores, Defendants are directly and personally contributing to, inducing and engaging in the infringement of the Copyright Protected Images as alleged, often times as partners, co-conspirators and/or suppliers. Upon information and belief, Defendants are an interrelated group of counterfeiters working in active concert to knowingly and willfully use without authorization the Copyright Protected Works, to manufacture, import, distribute, offer for sale, and sell competing inferior products.

28. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant hereto, Defendants have had full knowledge of Plaintiff's ownership of the Copyright Protected Images, including its exclusive right to use and license belonging to Rotita and the goodwill associated therewith.

29. Plaintiff has identified numerous stores on the Online Platform, including Defendants' Online Stores, which are offering for sale, selling, and importing competing products to consumers in this judicial district and throughout the United States by using, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images. Infringers on e-commerce platforms such as Defendants' Online Stores are estimated to receive tens of millions of visits per year and to generate over $135 billion in annual online sales. According to an intellectual property rights seizures statistics report issued by the United States Department of Homeland Security, the manufacturer's suggested retail price ("MSRP") of goods seized by the U.S. government in fiscal year 2020 was over $1.3 billion. Internet websites like Defendants' Online Stores are also estimated to contribute to tens of thousands of lost jobs for legitimate businesses and broader economic damages such as lost tax revenue every year.

30. On information and belief, Defendants set up seller accounts on the Online Platform using, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers of genuine products. Defendants' Online Stores accept payment in United States currency via credit cards and PayPal.

31. On information and belief, Defendants deceive unknowing consumers by using Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images on Defendants' Online Stores without authorization to attract customers, and to sell competing products resembling authentic Rotita products.

32. Defendants, in similar types of cases, deceive unknowing consumers by using the infringed intellectual property as originally used in connection with the sale of genuine products, within the content, text, and/or meta tags of their websites to attract various search engines crawling the Internet looking for websites relevant to consumer product searches. Additionally, counterfeiters in similar type cases, use other unauthorized search engine optimization ("SEO") tactics and social media spamming so that the Defendants internet store listings show up at or near the top of relevant search results and misdirect consumers searching for genuine products. Further, counterfeiters utilize similar illegitimate SEO tactics to propel new domain names to the top of search results after others are shut down.

33. Here, a search for the Rotita women's swimwear on the Online Platform resulted in the unauthorized display of the Copyright Protected Images being used to promote competing, inferior products. As such, Plaintiff also seeks to disable Defendants' Online Stores that are how the Defendants display, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images to continue to sell competing products to consumers in the State of Illinois and in this judicial district.

34. On information and belief, Defendants conceal their identities by using multiple fictitious names and addresses to register and operate a massive network of internet stores. It is common practice for counterfeiters to register accounts with incomplete information, randomly typed letters, or omitted cities or states; use privacy services that conceal the owners' identity and contact information; and regularly create new websites and online marketplace accounts on various platforms including Defendants' Online Stores listed in Schedule "A". Such internet store registration patterns are one of many common tactics counterfeiters use to conceal their identities, the full scope and interworking of their massive counterfeiting operation, and to avoid being shut down.

35. Upon receiving notice of a lawsuit, counterfeiters in similar cases will often register new domain names or online marketplace accounts under new aliases.¹ Counterfeiters also typically ship products in small quantities via international mail to minimize detection by U.S. Customs and Border Protection. A 2021 U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") report on seizure statistics indicated that e-commerce sales accounted for 13.3% of total retail sales with second quarter of 2021 retail e-commerce sales estimated at $222.5 billion.² In FY 2021, there were 213 million express mail shipments and 94 million international mail shipments. Id. Nearly 90 percent of all intellectual property seizures occur in the international mail and express environments. Id. at 27. The “overwhelming volume of small packages also makes CBP’s ability to identify and interdict high risk packages difficult.” Id. at 23.

36. Further, counterfeiters often operate multiple credit card merchant accounts and third-party accounts behind layers of payment gateways so that they can continue operating despite enforcement efforts. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offshore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their Online Platform accounts to offshore bank accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court particularly since it is believed that Defendants reside in China or Hong Kong.

37. Defendants’ unlawful use of Plaintiff’s Copyright Protected Images to promote inferior competing products for sale on Defendants’ Online Stores, bear similarities and indicia of interrelatedness, suggesting they are manufactured by and come from a common source. Notable features common to Defendants’ Online Stores include lack of contact information, same or similar products for sale, identically or similarly priced items and sales discounts, shared hosting service, similar name servers, and their common infringement of Plaintiff’s Copyright Protected Images.

38. Defendants’ use of Plaintiff’s Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertising, marketing, distribution, offering for sale and the sale of competing products of inferior quality is likely to cause and has caused confusion, mistake and deception by and among consumers and is irreparably harming Rotita. Defendants have manufactured, imported, distributed, offered for sale and sold their inferior products using the Copyright Protected Images without authorization to do so and will continue to do so unless restrained temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently by this Court.

39. Defendants, without authorization or license from Plaintiff, knowingly and willfully used and continue to use the company's Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertisement, offer for sale and the sale of competing products through, inter alia, their Online Stores identified in Schedule "A".

40. Upon information and belief, Defendants will continue to infringe Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images for the purpose of selling inferior competing products unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

41. Defendants' unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertising, distribution, offering for sale, and the sale of poor-quality products in the United States and specifically into the State of Illinois, is likely to cause and has caused confusion, mistake, and deception by and among consumers and is irreparably harming the goodwill and intrinsic value of Plaintiff's Asserted Brand.

42. Unless enjoined, Defendants infringing conduct will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff.

COUNT I
COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT (17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.)

43. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 42, above.

44. Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images have significant value and have been produced and created at considerable expense.

45. Plaintiff owns all exclusive rights, including without limitation the rights to reproduce the Copyright Protected Images in copies, to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted work, and to distribute copies of the copyrighted work to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending, the copyright protected works.

46. Defendants have sold, offered to sell, marketed, distributed, and advertised, and are still selling, offering to sell, marketing, distributing, and advertising products using the Copyright Protected Images without Plaintiff's permission, authorization, consent, or license.

47. Upon information and belief, Defendants have directly copied the Copyright Protected Images and used them, without authorization, to advertise, promote, offer for sale, and sell competing products of low quality and at a fraction of the price.

48. As examples, Defendants deceive unknowing consumers by using, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images on Defendants' Online Stores to attract customers as follows:

49. Defendants' unauthorized exploitation of Copyright Protected Images to advertise, offer for sale and sell inferior products on Defendants' Online Stores constitutes copyright infringement.

50. On information and belief, Defendants' infringing acts were willful, deliberate, and committed with prior notice and knowledge of the Copyright Protected Images.

51. Each Defendant either knew, or should have reasonably known, that the Copyright Protected Images are subject to federal copyright protection. Further, each Defendant continues to infringe upon Plaintiff's rights in and to the Copyright Protected Images.

52. As a direct and proximate result of their unauthorized and infringing conduct, Defendants have obtained and continue to realize direct and indirect profits and other benefits rightfully belonging to Plaintiff, and that Defendants would not otherwise have realized but for their infringement of Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images.

53. The foregoing acts of infringement constitute a collective enterprise of shared, conspiratorial, overlapping acts done in concert, and facts that have been willful, intentional, and in disregard of and with indifference to the rights of the Plaintiff. Accordingly, Defendants, and each of them, should be found jointly and severally liable.

54. Accordingly, Plaintiff seek an award of damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504.

55. In addition to actual damages, Plaintiff is entitled to receive the profits made by Defendants from their wrongful acts, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b). Each Defendant should be required to account for all gains, profits, and advantages derived by each Defendant from their acts of infringement.

56. In the alternative, Plaintiff is entitled to, and may elect to choose statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), which should be enhanced by 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2) because of Defendants' willful copyright infringement.

57. Plaintiff is entitled to, and may elect to choose injunctive relief under 17 U.S.C. § 502, enjoining any use or exploitation by Defendants of their infringing work and for an order under 17 U.S.C. § 503 that any of Defendants' infringing products be impounded and destroyed.

58. Plaintiff seeks and is also entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

59. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and, if Defendants' actions are not enjoined, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to the reputation and goodwill of their well-known Asserted Brand.

60. The conduct of each Defendant is causing and, unless enjoined and restrained by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiff great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured monetarily. As such, Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§502 and 503, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief prohibiting each Defendant from further infringing the Copyright Protected Images and ordering that each Defendant destroy all unauthorized copies. Defendants' copies, plates, and other embodiments of the copyrighted works from which copies can be reproduced, if any, should be impounded and forfeited to Plaintiff as instruments of infringement, and all infringing copies created by Defendants should be impounded and forfeited to Plaintiff, under 17 U.S.C §503.

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF ILLINOIS UNIFORM DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT
(815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.)

61. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 42, above.

62. Defendants have engaged in acts violating Illinois law including, but not limited to, passing off their knockoff products as those of Plaintiff's Asserted Brand products through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images, thereby causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to the source of their goods, causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to an affiliation, connection, or association with genuine Asserted

Brand products, falsely representing that their products have Plaintiff's approval when they do not, and engaging in other conduct which creates a likelihood of confusion or misunderstanding among the public.

63. Moreover, Defendants have used, without authorization, Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images in promoting Defendants' Online Stores by displaying them in connection with offering for sale knockoff and/or inferior products by deceiving consumers into believing said products are authentic Asserted Brand products.

64. The foregoing acts of Defendants constitute a willful violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

65. Plaintiff is entitled to the recovery of damages and attorneys' fees as authorized by statute.

66. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and Defendants' conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer damage to its Asserted Brand's reputation and goodwill. Unless enjoined by the Court, Plaintiff will continue to suffer future irreparable harm as a direct result of Defendants' unlawful activities.

h. operating and/or hosting websites at the Defendants' Internet stores and any other domain names registered or operated by Defendants that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images.

c. take all necessary steps to prevent links to Defendants' Online Stores identified on Schedule "A" from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing links to Defendants' domain names from any search index.

4. That Defendants account for and pay to Plaintiff all profits realized by them through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images.

5. In the alternative, that Plaintiff be awarded statutory damages of not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 for each and every infringement of the Copyright Protected Images pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), which should be enhanced to a sum of not more than $150,000 by 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2) because of Defendants' willful copyright infringement.

7. That Plaintiff be awarded attorneys' fees and costs damages as authorized by statute under 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

8. That Plaintiff be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and

9. Award any and all other relief that this Court deems just and proper.
