

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

HONG KONG LEYUZHEN TECHNOLOGY
CO. LIMITED,

Plaintiff,

v.

ABC Corporation, a Chinese Entity

Defendant.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff, Hong Kong Leyuzhen Technology Co. Limited (“Plaintiff”), by and through its counsel, the Bayramoglu Law Offices, LLC, submits the following Complaint against ABC Corporation, a pseudonym for SAIFANXIN, a Chinese entity (“Defendant”), and hereby alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff is the owner of all rights, title and interest in and to the copyright registrations issued by the United States Copyright Office for certain images related to its Rotita Brand product line (the “Rotita Brand”) used in connection with the promotion and sale of women’s apparel, which bear the following federal registration number: [REDACTED] For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant its Motion and temporarily seal the requested information, which includes, at minimum, the company’s federally registered copyright, Schedule A, and any copyright filing identifiers, until the designated online Platform complies with the requirements of the anticipated TRO, along with such other relief as the Court deems just and proper. (the “Copyright Protected Images”).

2. Plaintiff has filed this action to combat the online copyright infringer who trades upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill and valuable copyrights, including the Copyright Protected Images, to sell counterfeit and/or knock-off products of inferior quality by representing them to be authentic Rotita Brand products through the unauthorized display of the Copyright Protected Images on their online temu.com storefront (the "Online Store") maintained on the Amazon sales platform. Defendant additionally offers its counterfeit and/or knock-off products at substantially reduced prices from the authentic Rotita Brand products offered by Plaintiff.

3. Plaintiff exclusively utilizes the Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertising, display, and sale of its authentic Rotita Brand products on its wholly owned, operated, and controlled company website. Plaintiff does not advertise, market, display, or sell its authentic Rotita Brand products on the Amazon Online Platform.

4. Defendant likewise advertises, markets, and/or sells their competing products embodying Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images by reference to the same photographs as associated with genuine Rotita Brand products, which causes further confusion and deception in the marketplace.

5. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendant's unauthorized use of its Copyright Protected Images to sell inferior, competing products, as well as to protect unknowing consumers from purchasing imitation products over the Internet. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through consumer confusion, dilution, and tarnishment of the Rotita Brand's reputation and goodwill because of Defendant's actions, and therefore the company seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over the unfair deceptive trade practices claim in this action that arise under the laws of the State of Illinois pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) because the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

8. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant, since KAILINNA directly targets consumers in the United States, including those within the State of Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores accessible through the Defendant’s Amazon storefront.

9. Specifically, Defendant is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating at least one commercial, interactive internet store through which residents can purchase inferior products that are advertised for sale using, without authorization, Plaintiff’s Copyright Protected Images. Defendant has targeted sales from Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including to the State of Illinois, accept payment in United States currency, and, on information and belief, has used Plaintiff’s Copyright Protected Images, without authorization, to sell competing, counterfeit/ knockoff products of lesser quality to residents of the State of Illinois.

10. Defendant is committing tortious acts in the State of Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(2) and 1400(a) because Defendant has committed acts of copyright infringement in this judicial district and does business in the judicial district.

THE PARTIES

11. Plaintiff, Hong Kong Leyuzhen Technology Co. Limited, is a corporation organized under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("China") and is the owner of the Copyright Protected Images asserted to have been infringed in this action by the Defendants. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the federal copyright registration issued for the Copyright Protected Images and Copyright Public Records Data.

12. Plaintiff founded its Rotita Brand in 2009, which is dedicated to women's fashion apparel and serves consumers in the United States and worldwide.

13. Plaintiff designed, caused to subsist in material form, and first published the Copyright Protected Images on its website located at the company's designated website employing the Rotita Brand in its URL, and over the years, has worked hard to establish success and recognition for high-quality women's apparel internationally and in the United States.

14. The plaintiff has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and promoting its Rotita Brand, specifically the Copyrighted Images. As a result, the Rotita Brand is widely recognized and exclusively associated with quality products by consumers, the public, and the trade.

15. Plaintiff owns all rights, including, without limitation, the rights to reproduce the Copyright Protected Images in copies, to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted works, and to distribute copies of the copyrighted works to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending the protected works.

16. Plaintiff has neither licensed nor authorized Defendant to use the Copyright Protected Images and Defendant is not an authorized retailer of Plaintiff's genuine Rotita Brand products.

17. Defendant resides mainly in China or Hong Kong. Defendant conducts business throughout the United States, including within the State of Illinois and in this judicial district, through the operation of Defendant's Online Amazon Store, and has offered to sell and, on information and belief, has sold and continues to sell competing Rotita Brand products, to consumers within the United States, including in the State of Illinois and in this judicial district, by displaying, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images on its Online temu Stores. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 are true and correct copies of Defendant's Storefront displaying Rotita copyright images.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

18. The success of Plaintiff's Rotita Brand has led to counterfeiting and deliberate copying of the company's products, as well as the sale and offering for sale of those products through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images. According to information and belief, Defendant conducts their illegal activities through their online stores on the Amazon platform. The defendant targets consumers in the United States, including those in Illinois, and sells and offers for sale products that use copyrighted images without permission.

19. In similar cases involving multiple counterfeiters, defendants operating online stores deliberately hide their identities and the full extent of their counterfeiting activities to prevent plaintiffs and courts from discovering their true identities and the full scope of their illegal operations.

20. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times, Defendant was fully aware of Plaintiff's ownership of the Copyright Protected Images, including its exclusive rights to use and license the Rotita Brand and the associated goodwill.

21. Plaintiff has identified Defendant's Online Store, which is offering for sale, selling, and importing competing products to consumers in this judicial district and throughout the United States by using, without authorization, the Copyright-Protected Images. Infringers on e-commerce platforms, such as Defendant's online store, are estimated to receive tens of millions of visits per year and generate over $135 billion in annual online sales. According to an intellectual property rights seizures statistics report issued by the United States Department of Homeland Security, the manufacturer's suggested retail price ("MSRP") of goods seized by the U.S. government in fiscal year 2020 was over $1.3 billion. Internet websites, like Defendant's online stores, are also estimated to contribute to tens of thousands of lost jobs for legitimate businesses and broader economic damages, such as lost tax revenue, every year.

22. On information and belief, Defendant sets up its seller accounts on the Online Amazon Platform using, without authorization, the Copyright Protected Images so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers of genuine Rotita Brand products. Defendant's Online Stores accept payment in United States currency via credit cards and PayPal.

23. On information and belief, the Defendant deceives unknowing consumers by using the Plaintiff's copyrighted images on the Defendant's online stores without authorization, thereby attracting customers and selling products that resemble authentic Rotita Brand products.

24. On information and belief, Defendant conceals its identity by using fictitious names and addresses to register and operate its internet stores. It is common practice for counterfeiters to register accounts with incomplete information, randomly typed letters, or omitted cities or states; use privacy services that conceal the owners' identity and contact information; and regularly create new websites and online marketplace accounts on various platforms, including Defendant's Online Amazon Store. Such internet store registration patterns are one of many common tactics counterfeiters use to conceal their identities, the full scope and interworking of their massive counterfeiting operation, and to avoid being shut down.

25. Upon receiving notice of a lawsuit, counterfeiters in similar cases will often register new domain names or online marketplace accounts under new aliases.¹ Counterfeiters also typically ship products in small quantities via international mail to minimize detection by U.S. Customs and Border Protection. A 2021 U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") report on seizure statistics indicated that e-commerce sales accounted for 13.3% of total retail sales, with second quarter of 2021 retail e-commerce sales estimated at $222.5 billion.² In FY 2021, there were 213 million express mail shipments and 94 million international mail shipments. Id. Nearly 90 percent of all intellectual property seizures occur in the global mail and express environments. Id. at 27. The "overwhelming volume of small packages also makes CBP's ability to identify and interdict high risk packages difficult." Id. at 23.

26. Further, counterfeiters often operate multiple credit card merchant accounts and third-party accounts behind layers of payment gateways so that they can continue operating despite enforcement efforts. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offshore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their Online Platform accounts to offshore bank accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court, particularly since it is believed that Defendants reside in China or Hong Kong.

27. Defendant's use of Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertising, marketing, distribution, offering for sale, and the sale of competing products of inferior quality causes confusion, mistake, and deception by and among consumers and is irreparably harming the Rotita Brand. Defendant has manufactured, imported, distributed, offered for sale, and sold its inferior products using the Copyright Protected Images without authorization to do so and will continue to do so unless restrained temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently by this Court.

28. Defendant, without authorization or license from Plaintiff, knowingly and willfully used and continues to use the company's Copyright Protected Images in connection with the advertisement, offer for sale and the sale of counterfeit and/or knockoff Rotita Brand products through, inter alia, its Online Store.

29. The defendant's unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images in connection with advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and selling poor-quality products in the United States, especially within Illinois, is likely to cause and has caused confusion, mistakes, and deception among consumers. It is also causing irreparable harm to the goodwill and intrinsic value of the Plaintiff's Rotita Brand.

COUNT I

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT (17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.)

30. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 29, above.

33. Defendant has sold, offered to sell, marketed, distributed, and advertised, and are still selling, offering to sell, marketing, distributing, and advertising products using the Copyright Protected Images without Plaintiff's permission, authorization, consent, or license.

34. Upon information and belief, Defendant has directly copied the Copyright Protected Images and used them, without authorization, to advertise, promote, offer for sale, and sell competing products of low quality and at a fraction of the price.

35. As examples, Defendants deceive unknowing consumers by using, without authorization, the Copyright-Protected Images on Defendants' Online Stores to attract customers as follows:

36. Defendant's unauthorized exploitation of copyright-protected images to advertise, offer for sale, and sell inferior products on Defendant's Amazon Store constitutes copyright infringement.

37. On information and belief, Defendant's infringing acts were willful, deliberate, and committed with prior notice and knowledge of the Copyright Protected Images.

38. The Defendant knew or should have known, that the images are protected, yet continues to infringe upon the Plaintiff's Copyright.

41. Accordingly, Plaintiff seek an award of damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504.

42. In addition to actual damages, Plaintiff is entitled to receive the profits made by Defendant from its wrongful acts, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b). Defendant should be required to account for all gains, profits, and advantages derived by Defendant from its acts of infringement.

43. In the alternative, Plaintiff is entitled to and may elect to choose statutory damages under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), which should be enhanced by 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2) because of Defendant's willful copyright infringement.

44. Plaintiff is entitled to and may elect to choose injunctive relief under 17 U.S.C. § 502, enjoining any use or exploitation by Defendant of its infringing work and for an order under 17 U.S.C. § 503 that any of Defendant's infringing products be impounded and destroyed.

45. Plaintiff seeks and is also entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

46. If Defendant's actions do not cease, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to the reputation and goodwill of their well-known Rotita Brand.

47. The conduct of Defendant is causing and, unless restrained by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiff significant and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured monetarily. As such, Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Under 17 U.S.C. §§502 and 503, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief prohibiting Defendant from further infringing the Copyright Protected Images and ordering that each Defendant destroy all unauthorized copies. Defendants' copies, plates, and other embodiments of the copyrighted works from which copies can be reproduced, if any, should be impounded and forfeited to Plaintiff as instruments of infringement, and all infringing copies created by Defendants should be impounded and forfeited to Plaintiff, under 17 U.S.C §503.

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF ILLINOIS UNIFORM DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT
(815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.)

48. Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 29, above.

49. Defendant has engaged in acts violating Illinois law including, but not limited to, passing off their knockoff products as those of Plaintiff's Rotita Brand products through the unauthorized use of the Copyright Protected Images, thereby causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to the source of their goods, causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to an affiliation, connection, or association with genuine Rotita Brand products, falsely representing that their products have Plaintiff's approval when they do not, and engaging in other conduct which creates a likelihood of confusion or misunderstanding among the public.

50. Moreover, Defendant has used, without authorization, Plaintiff's Copyright Protected Images in promoting Defendant's Online Stores by displaying them in connection with offering for sale knockoff and/or inferior products by deceiving consumers into believing said products are authentic Rotita Brand products.

51. The foregoing acts of Defendant constitute a willful violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

52. Plaintiff is entitled to the recovery of damages and attorneys' fees as authorized by statute.

53. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and Defendant's conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer damage to its Rotita Brand's reputation and goodwill. Unless ceased by the Court, Plaintiff will continue to suffer future irreparable harm as a direct result of Defendant's unlawful activities.
