

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

Michael Barcohana,

Plaintiff,

v.

AZURASPACE BEAUTY,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:25-cv-10736

Honorable Sunil R. Harjani

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

Plaintiff Michael Barcohana (“PLAINTIFF”) filed a Motion for Entry of a Preliminary Injunction against the against Defendant AZURASPACE BEAUTY (the “Defendant”) and using at least the domain names identified in the Second Amended Complaint (the “Defendant Domain Names”) and the online marketplace account identified in the Second Amended Complaint (the “Online Marketplaces”). After reviewing the Motion and the accompanying record, this Court GRANTS PLAINTIFF’s Motion as follows.

This Court finds PLAINTIFF has provided notice to Defendant in accordance with the Temporary Restraining Order and Electronic Service and Expedited Discovery Order entered October 21, 2025, [Docket Nos. 27, 28] (“TRO”), and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(a)(1).

This Court also finds, in the absence of adversarial presentation, that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant directly targets its business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, PLAINTIFF has provided a basis to conclude that Defendant has targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including to the State of Illinois, and have sold counterfeit products through the unauthorized use and display of Plaintiff's federally registered Trademark (the "Plaintiff's Trademark") to residents of the State of Illinois. Docket No. 23-1, Ex. 1 to the Complaint, which includes Plaintiff's Trademark: 7,824,763. In this case, PLAINTIFF has also presented evidence that Defendant's e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using unauthorized use and display of Plaintiff's Trademark. See Docket No. [23-2], which includes evidence confirming that Defendant's e-commerce store does stand ready, willing and able to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois using the unauthorized use and display of Plaintiff's Trademark.

This Court also finds that the injunctive relief previously granted in the TRO should remain in place through the pendency of this litigation and that issuing this Preliminary Injunction is warranted under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65. Evidence submitted in support of this Motion and in support of PLAINTIFF's previously granted Motion for Entry of a TRO establishes that PLAINTIFF has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits; that no remedy at law exists; and that PLAINTIFF will suffer irreparable harm if the injunction is not granted.

Specifically, PLAINTIFF has proved a prima facie case of Trademark infringement because (1) the PLAINTIFF trademarks are distinctive and registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on the Principal Register; (2) Defendant is not licensed or authorized to use the PLAINTIFF trademarks; and, (3) Defendant's use of PLAINTIFF's trademarks is causing a likelihood of confusion as to the origin or sponsorship of Defendant's products with Plaintiff. Furthermore, Defendant's continued, and unauthorized use of PLAINTIFF's federally registered Trademark irreparably harms PLAINTIFF through loss of customers' goodwill and reputational harm. Monetary damages fail to address such damage and, therefore, PLAINTIFF has an inadequate remedy at law. Moreover, the public interest is served by entry of this Preliminary Injunction to dispel the public confusion created by Defendant's actions. Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Defendant, its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be preliminarily enjoined and restrained from:

- a. Using or displaying the PLAINTIFF's Trademark, in any medium, whether it be print, digital or otherwise, in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine PLAINTIFF product or is not authorized by PLAINTIFF to be sold in connection with the PLAINTIFF's Trademark;
- b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine PLAINTIFF's product or any other product produced by PLAINTIFF through the use or display of the PLAINTIFF's Trademark;
- c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendant's products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of PLAINTIFF, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with PLAINTIFF; and
- d. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for PLAINTIFF, nor authorized by PLAINTIFF to be sold or offered for sale through the use or display of the Plaintiff's Trademark.

2. Defendant shall be restrained and enjoined from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendant's assets until further ordered by this Court.

3. The domain name registries for the Defendant Domain Names, including, but not limited to, VeriSign, Inc., Neustar, Inc., Afilias Limited, CentralNic, Nominet, and the Public Interest Registry, and the domain name registrars, including, but not limited to, GoDaddy Operating Company LLC, Name.com, PDR LTD. d/b/a/ PublicDomainRegistry.com, and Namecheap Inc., within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order or prior to the expiration of this Order, whichever date shall occur first, shall disable the Defendant Domain Names and make them inactive and untransferable until further order by this Court.

4. Upon PLAINTIFF's request, Defendant and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of Defendant, or in connection with any of Defendant's Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as TikTok Inc., eBay, Inc., AliExpress, Alibaba Group Holding Ltd. ("Alibaba"), Amazon.com, Inc., ContextLogic Inc. d/b/a Wish.com ("Wish.com"), and Dhgate (collectively, the "Third Party Providers"), shall, within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, provide to PLAINTIFF expedited discovery, limited to copies of documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control sufficient to determine:

- a. the identities and locations of Defendant, its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including all known contact information and all associated e-mail addresses;
- b. the nature of Defendant's operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Online Marketplaces and Defendant's financial accounts, including Defendant's sales and listing history related to their respective Online Marketplaces; and

- c. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendant, including its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal"), Alipay, Wish.com, Alibaba, Ant Financial Services Group ("Ant Financial"), Amazon Pay, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

5. Upon PLAINTIFF's request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third-Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 4, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendant in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the PLAINTIFF Trademark.

6. Any Third-Party Providers, including PayPal, Alipay, Alibaba, Ant Financial, Wish.com, and Amazon Pay, shall, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order:

- a. locate all accounts and funds connected to Defendant's seller aliases, including, but not limited to, any financial accounts connected to the information listed in the Complaint, any e-mail addresses provided for Defendant by third parties; and
- b. restrain and enjoin any such accounts or funds from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendant's assets until further order by this Court.

7. PLAINTIFF may provide notice of the proceedings in this case to Defendant, including service of process pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(f)(3), and any future motions, by electronically publishing a link to the Pleadings, this Order, and other relevant documents on a website and by sending an e-mail with a link to said website to the e-mail addresses provided for Defendant by third parties. The Clerk of the Court is directed to issue a single original summons in the name of “AZURASPACE BEAUTY” that shall apply to Defendant. The combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defendant receive from payment processors, shall constitute notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defendant of the pendency of the action and afford them the opportunity to present their objections.

8. Defendant that is subject to this Order may appear and move to dissolve or modify the Order as permitted by and in compliance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Northern District of Illinois Local Rules. Any third party impacted by this Order may move for appropriate relief.

9. The $1,000 bond posted by PLAINTIFF shall remain with the Court until a final disposition of this case or until this Preliminary Injunction is terminated.

10. All previously sealed documents are hereby unsealed.
