Case No. 1:25-cv-13392

Honorable Jeffrey I. Cummings

Magistrate Gabriel A. Fuentes

SEALED TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiff Shenzhen Duoleduo Technology Co. Ltd., ("Plaintiff") filed an ex parte Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Including an Asset Restraint, and Expedited Discovery (the "Motion") against the Individuals, Corporations, Limited Liability Companies, Partnerships, and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule "A" to the Complaint (collectively, the "Defendants"), who operate their e-commerce stores (the "Online Stores") maintained on the Amazon marketplace platform (the "Platform"). After reviewing the Motion and the accompanying record, this Court GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion as follows.

This Court finds, in the absence of adversarial presentation, that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products using infringing and counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's federally registered patents, U.S. Design Patent No. D1,062,965 (the "D'965 Patent") and U.S. Design Patent No. D1,091,741 (the "D'741 Patent", and collectively with the D'965 Patent the "Asserted Patents"), to residents of Illinois. In this case, Plaintiff has presented evidence that each Defendant's Online Store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using counterfeit versions of the Asserted Patents. See Docket No. 1-3 and the Declaration of Melissa Henderson in support of the Motion, which include evidence confirming that each of the Online Stores do stand ready, willing and able to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois bearing infringing and/or counterfeit versions of the automatic smoker claimed in the Asserted Patents.

This Court also finds that issuing this Order without notice pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because Plaintiff has presented specific facts in the Declaration of Mingjing He in support of the Motion and accompanying evidence clearly showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition. Specifically, in the absence of an ex parte Order, Defendants could and likely would move any assets from accounts in financial institutions under this Court's jurisdiction to offshore accounts. Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting in active concert or participation with them be temporarily enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. manufacturing, importing, offering to sell, or selling any product that infringes the Asserted Patents;

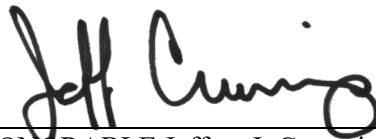

- b. aiding, abetting, contributing to, or otherwise assisting anyone in infringing upon the Asserted Patents;
 - c. taking any action intended or calculated to damage the reputation or selling account of Plaintiff, including but not limited to soliciting false reviews, soliciting large product purchases and returns from Plaintiff, and filing false complaints related to Plaintiff;
 - d. aiding, abetting, contributing to, or otherwise assisting anyone in and taking any action intended or calculated to damage the reputation or selling account of Plaintiff, including but not limited to soliciting false reviews, soliciting large product purchases and returns from Plaintiff, and filing false complaints related to Plaintiff; and
 - e. Effecting assignments or transfers, forming new entities or associations or utilizing any other device for the purpose of circumventing or otherwise avoiding the prohibitions set forth in Subparagraphs (a) through (d).
2. Defendants shall not transfer or dispose of any money or other of Defendants' assets in any of Defendants' financial accounts.
3. Plaintiff is authorized to issue expedited written discovery to Defendants, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 33, 34, and 36, related to:
- a. the identities and locations of Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including all known contact information and all associated e-mail addresses;
 - b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Online Stores and Defendants' financial accounts, including Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Online Stores; and

- c. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal"), Alipay, ContextLogic Inc. d/b/a Wish.com ("Wish.com"), Alibaba Group Holding Ltd. ("Alibaba"), Ant Financial Services Group ("Ant Financial"), Amazon Pay, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).
4. Upon Plaintiff's request, any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defendants, or in connection with any of Defendants' Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as eBay, Inc., AliExpress, Alibaba, Amazon.com, Inc., Wish.com, and Dhgate (collectively, the "Third Party Providers"), shall, within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, limited to copies of documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control sufficient to determine:
- a. the identities and locations of Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including all known contact information and all associated e-mail addresses;

- b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Online Marketplaces and Defendants' financial accounts, including Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Online Marketplaces; and
 - c. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, Alipay, Wish.com, Alibaba, Ant Financial, Amazon Pay, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).
5. Upon Plaintiff's request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third-Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 4, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of goods that infringe the Asserted Patents.
6. Any Third-Party Providers, including PayPal, Alipay, Alibaba, Ant Financial, Wish.com, and Amazon Pay, shall, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order:
- a. locate all accounts and funds connected to Defendants' seller aliases, including, but not limited to, any financial accounts connected to the information listed in Schedule A hereto, and any e-mail addresses provided for Defendants by third parties; and

- b. restrain and enjoin any such accounts or funds from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendants' assets until further order by this Court.
7. The Clerk of the Court is directed to issue a single original summons in the name of "Individuals, Corporations, Limited Liability Companies, Partnerships, and Unincorporated Associations" and shall apply to all Defendants.
 8. Plaintiff must provide notice to Defendants of any motion for preliminary injunction as required by Rule 65(a)(1).
 9. Plaintiff's Schedule A to the Complaint [Dkt. No.1-1] and other documents already sealed in this case shall remain sealed until further order by this Court or until the Order expires, whichever occurs earlier.
 10. Within seven (7) calendar days of entry of this Order, Plaintiff shall deposit with the Court $10,000.00 either cash or surety bond, as security, which amount has, in the absence of adversarial testing, been deemed adequate for the payment of such damages as any person may be entitled to recover as a result of a wrongful restraint hereunder.
 11. Any Defendants that are subject to this Order may appear and move to dissolve or modify the Order as permitted by and in compliance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Northern District of Illinois Local Rules. Any third party impacted by this Order may move for appropriate relief.
 12. This Temporary Restraining Order without notice is entered at 3:50 P.M. on this 24th day of November, 2025 and shall remain in effect for 14 calendar days.
