

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

MICHAEL BARCOHANA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ZENARAA,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:25-cv-13727

Honorable Sara L. Ellis

FINAL DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiff Michael Barcohana (“Plaintiff”) against the Defendant, ZENARAA (“Defendant” or “Defaulting Defendant”) identified in Plaintiffs Complaint, and Plaintiff having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the Defendant;

This Court having entered a preliminary injunction; Plaintiff having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendant, the combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that the Defaulting Defendant received from domain name registrars and payment processors, being notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise the Defaulting Defendant of the pendency of the action and allowing them to answer and present their objections; and the Defaulting Defendant not having answered or appeared in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendant because they directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendant has aimed sales at Illinois residents by establishing and running its e-commerce store that targets U.S. consumers using one or more seller aliases, offers shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and has sold products containing infringing and counterfeit versions of Plaintiff’s federally registered trademarks (the “Plaintiff Trademarks”) to Illinois. In this case, Plaintiff has submitted screenshot evidence showing that the Defaulting Defendant’s e-commerce stores are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using counterfeit versions of the Plaintiff Trademarks. See Docket No. 1-2, which includes screenshot evidence confirming that Defendant’s e-commerce store is ready, willing, and able to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois bearing infringing and/or counterfeit versions of the Plaintiff Trademarks.

A list of the Plaintiff Trademark(s) is included in the below chart.

Registration Number	Registered Trademark	International Classes
7,824,763	QUEEN TAPE	CLASS 10

This Court further finds that the Defaulting Defendant is liable for willful federal trademark infringement and counterfeiting (15 U.S.C. § 1114), a n d false designation of origin (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)).

Accordingly, this Court orders that Plaintiff’s Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendant is deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendant.

This Court further orders that:

1. Defaulting Defendant, its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them, be permanently enjoined and restrained from:
