Case No.: 25-cv-14938

Honorable Judge April M. Perry

Magistrate Jeannice W. Appenteng

ORDER FOR LEAVE TO CONDUCT EXPEDITED DISCOVERY AND SERVICE OF PROCESS BY E-MAIL AND/OR ELECTRONIC PUBLICATION

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff Hong Kong Leyuzhen Technology Co. Limited's ("Plaintiff") Motion for Electronic Service and Expedited Discovery (the "Motion") against Jinhua Younamei Trading Co., Ltd, identified in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint at Law ("Defendant"). After reviewing the Motion and the accompanying documents, this Court Grants the Motion as follows.

This Court finds, in the absence of adversarial presentation, that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendant because Defendant directly targets its business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defendant has targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating at least one e-commerce store that targets United States consumers using at least one seller alias, offers shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and has sold products using infringing versions of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrights, which are protected by U.S Copyright Registration Nos. VA0002379894, VA0002379895, and VA0002384873 to residents of Illinois. Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Upon Plaintiff's request, any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for the Defendant, or in connection with the Defendant's Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Alibaba, Temu, eBay Inc., AliExpress, TikTok, Amazon.com Inc., Wish.com, and Dhgate (collectively the "Third Party Providers"), shall, within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, limited to copies of documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control sufficient to determine:

- a. the identities and locations of Defendant, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including all known contact information and all associated e-mail addresses;
- b. the nature of Defendant's operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Internet Store and Defendant's financial accounts, including Defendant's sales and listing history related to its Internet Store; and
- c. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendant, including its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, Temu, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

2. PLAINTIFF may provide notice of the proceedings in this case to Defendant, including service of process pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(f)(3), and any future motions, by electronically publishing a link to the Amended Complaint, this Order, and other relevant documents on a website and by sending an e-mail to any e-mail addresses provided for Defendant by third parties. The Clerk of the Court is directed to issue a single original summons in the name of “Jinhua Younamei Trading Co., Ltd.” The combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defendant receives from payment processors, shall constitute notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defendant of the pendency of the action and afford them the opportunity to present their objections.

3. Defendant or any third party impacted by this Order may move for appropriate relief subject to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Northern District of Illinois Local Rules.
