SHENZHEN PEISHI ADVERTISING

Plaintiff,

v.

MIKESIER,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:26-cv-00734-SJC-AB

Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman

Magistrate Albert Berry, III.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT AND DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST DEFENDANT MIKESIER

COMES NOW, Plaintiff Shenzhen Peishi Advertising Media Co. Ltd., (“Peishi” or “Plaintiff”), by and through its counsel, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a) and (b)(2) and submits its Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment against Defendant MIKESIER (“Defendant”). Plaintiff’s Motion disposes of the case.

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court for an order entering default and default judgment against the Defendant finding that Defendant is liable on all counts of Plaintiff’s Complaint. Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a) and (b)(2). Plaintiff further seeks an award of Plaintiff’s lost profits for willful patent infringement against Defendant for use of U.S. Patent No. 12,324,440 (the “440 Patent” or “Smoker Patent”) in products sold through the Defendant Internet Stores.

Rule 55(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure authorizes entry of default against parties who fail to plead or otherwise defend and that is attested to by affidavit. Rule 55(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides for a court-ordered default judgment. When the Court determines that a defendant is in default, the factual allegations of the complaint are taken as true and may not be challenged, and the defendants are liable as a matter of law as to each cause of action alleged in the complaint. See Black v. Lane, 22 F.3d 1395, 1399 (7th Cir. 1994); United States v. Di Mucci, 879 F.2d 1488, 1497 (7th Cir. 1989).

Plaintiff also seeks entry of a permanent injunction pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283, prohibiting Defaulting Defendant from making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use, products that infringe directly and/or indirectly the ornamental design claimed in the Smoker Patent. Defendant's infringement of the Smoker Patent through the aforesaid acts irreparably harms Plaintiff through the loss of its lawful patent rights to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing the patented invention, and will continue unless enjoined by this Court.

Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for the infringement, including Defendant's profits pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 289, an award of all costs pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d)(1), an award of attorney fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C.A. § 285, and other damages as appropriate pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284. In support of this Motion, Plaintiff submits the accompanying Memorandum and Declaration.

DATED this 23rd day of March 2026.

Case No. 1:26-cv-00734-SJC-AB

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT AND DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST DEFENDANT MIKESIER

Plaintiff Shenzhen Peishi Advertising Media Co. Ltd., (“Plaintiff”), by and through its counsel, submits the following memorandum in support of its Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a) and (b). Plaintiff respectfully moves the Court for an entry of Default and Default Judgment against Defendant MIKESIER (“Defendant”), in Plaintiff’s action for willful infringement of U.S. Patent No. 12,324,440 (the ‘440 Patent or “Smoker Patent”). Plaintiff’s Motion disposes of the case.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff is the assignee of U.S. Patent No. 12,324,440 (the “’440 Patent,” also referred to as the “Smoker Patent”) and filed this patent infringement action pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 1, et seq. against Defendant. Defendant is an individual or business entity of unknown makeup who owns and/or operates one or more e-commerce stores under at least the seller alias MIKESIER. [Dkt. Nos. 1, 2-1]. The Defendant targets sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target U.S. consumers using one or more Seller Aliases, offer shipping to the U.S., including Illinois, accepts payment in U.S. dollars and has sold products, including electronic drink smokers, which infringe the Smoker Patent (the “Infringing Products”) to residents of Illinois. [Dkt. No. 1 ¶¶ 30-37]. Additional factual assertions regarding Defendants in Paragraphs 18–29 of the Complaint are incorporated herein. Id. at ¶¶ 18–29.

Plaintiff filed the present suit on January 22, 2026. [Dkt. No. 1]. The case was assigned to the Honorable Sharon J. Coleman, who granted Plaintiff’s ex-parte Motion to Seal, Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Asset Restraint, Expedited Discovery, and Motion for Electronic Service on February 10, 2026. [Dkt. Nos. 19-21]. The Court granted Plaintiff’s Motion to Extend the Temporary Restraining Order on February 19, 2026. [Dkt. No. 25] and Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction on March 10, 2026. [Dkt. No. 34]. The Court issued a summons as to Defendant February 20, 2026, which Plaintiff returned executed on February 26, 2026. [Dkt. Nos. 29, 30].

At this stage, Plaintiff is asking the Court for an entry of default and an order for default judgment against the Defendant. An entry of default only requires a showing that the Defendant has failed to plead or otherwise defend against the judgment and other affirmative relief sought. Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a). Plaintiff served the Summons on Defendant, via electronic service on February 26, 2026. [Dkt. No. 30]. As of today, the Defendant has failed to file an answer within 21 days of the service and is in default. The Order Granting Motion for Alternate Service by E-Mail and/or Electronic Publication on Defendant permitted service of the Defendant by 1) sending an e-mail to the e-mail addresses provided by Defendant on the Defendant’s online stores or websites or 2) by sending an e-mail to the e-mail addresses provided for Defendant by third parties in response to the Temporary Restraining Order. [Dkt. No. 20]. The Defendant has not filed an answer or otherwise pled in this action. See Brees Decl. at ¶ 2.

By choosing not to participate in this case, Defendant has failed to produce any documents or information for: (1) identifying each and every domain name, online marketplace account and/or financial accounts used by Defendant, including the owner(s) and/or operator(s) of each Online Marketplace; (2) showing costs, cost allocations, revenues, and profits of Defendant; or (3) relating to each and every purchase that Defendant has made relating to the Smoker Patent and/or the Infringing Products, including records of the products purchased, the sale prices, images of the products, records of suppliers and manufacturers of the products, records of steps taken by Defendant to determine whether such products were new or genuine, and records of investigation notes regarding purchase of the products, including the identity of the person(s) responsible for such investigation. Limited information provided by Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”) for Defendant indicates that the amount currently restrained in Defendant’s known financial account is $ 4,771.25 (Brees Decl. at ¶ 4.) Additionally, the limited information provided by Amazon indicates that the known revenue generated by the Defendant from the sale of the specific Infringing Product listing reported by Plaintiff is $47,351.11. Id. at ¶ 5. Plaintiff does not have any infringing sales information for other potential Infringing Products sold by Defendant.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a) and (b)(2), Plaintiff now moves this Court for an Order entering default and default judgment finding that Defendant is liable on Count 1 of Plaintiff’s Complaint. Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a) and (b)(2). Plaintiff also seeks entry of a permanent injunction prohibiting Defendant from selling Infringing Products. Plaintiff further requests that the Court award damages in an amount equal to the revenue lost by Plaintiff due to the sale of infringing products by the Defendant, which is at least $88,932.21, or alternatively, a reasonable royalty to be determined by the Court pursuant to 35 USCS § 284, and allow assets in Defendant’s financial accounts, including those operated by Amazon, as well as any newly discovered assets, be transferred to Plaintiff.

ARGUMENT

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE ARE PROPER IN THIS COURT

This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Patent Act, 35 U.S.C. § 11, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)-(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendant since Defendant directly targets business activities toward consumers in Illinois and causes harm to Plaintiff's business within this Judicial District. See [Dkt. No. 1] at ¶¶ 1-5; uBID, Inc. v. GoDaddy Grp., Inc. 623 F.3d 421, 423-24 (7th Cir. 2010) (without benefit of an evidentiary hearing, plaintiff bears only the burden of making a prima facie case for personal jurisdiction; all of plaintiff's asserted facts should be accepted as true and any factual determinations should be resolved in its favor).

Through at least the fully interactive, e-commerce store operating under the Seller Alias, the Defendant has targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more Seller Aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and, on information and belief, has sold Infringing Products to consumers in the United States, including the State of Illinois. [Dkt. No. 1] at ¶¶ 30-37. Personal jurisdiction exists over Defendant since it directly targets its business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Defendant is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive e-commerce stores under the Seller Aliases through which Illinois residents can purchase Infringing Products. Id. See Monster Energy Co. v. Chen Wensheng, et al., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 132283, at *11 (N.D. Ill. Sept. 29, 2015).

II. PLAINTIFF HAS MET THE REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT

Pursuant to Rule 55(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, “when a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

On January 22, 2026, Plaintiff filed its Complaint alleging federal patent infringement of the ‘440 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271 (Count I); and Unjust Enrichment under Illinois State Common Law (Count II) [Dkt. No. 1]. The Defendant was properly served with the Complaint on February 26, 2026. [Dkt. No. 30]. Despite having been served with process, the Defendant has filed an answer or otherwise pled in this action. (Brees Decl. at ¶ 2). On information and belief, the Defendant is not active-duty members of the U.S. armed forces. Id. at ¶ 3. Accordingly, Plaintiff asks for entry of default against the Defendant.

III. PLAINTIFF HAS MET THE REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Rule 55(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides for a court-ordered default judgment. A default judgment establishes, as a matter of law, that defendants are liable to plaintiff on each cause of action alleged in the complaint. United States v. Di Mucci, 879 F.2d 1488, 1497 (7th Cir. 1989). When the Court determines that a defendant is in default, the factual allegations of the complaint are taken as true and may not be challenged, and the defendants are liable as a matter of law as to each cause of action alleged in the complaint. Black v. Lane, 22 F.3d 1395, 1399 (7th Cir. 1994).

As noted above, Plaintiff served Defendant on February 26, 2026. [Dkt. No. 30]. The answer deadline of March 19, 2026, has passed, and no answer or other responsive pleading has been filed by the Defendant. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(1)(A). Accordingly, default judgment is appropriate, and pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 289, Plaintiff requests an award of Defendant’s profits resulting from Defendant’s unauthorized use and infringement of the Smoker Patent on products sold through the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases. Plaintiff also seeks entry of a permanent injunction prohibiting Defendant from making, using, offering for sale, selling, and importing Infringing Products. Plaintiff further seeks an order that, for Defendant wherein the infringing product revenue is unknown, all assets in their financial accounts, including those operated by Amazon, as well as any newly discovered assets, but no less than $250, be transferred to Plaintiff.

The United States Patent Act provides that “whoever without authority makes, uses, offers to sell, or sells any patented invention, within the United States or imports into the United States any patented invention during the term of the patent therefor, infringes the patent.” 35 U.S.C. §271(a). Plaintiff alleged in its Complaint that it is the lawful assignee of all right, title, and interest in and to the ‘440 Patent. [Dkt. No. 1] at ¶ 36. Plaintiff has also alleged that Defendant makes, uses, offer for sale, sells, and/or imports into the United States for subsequent sale or use Infringing Products that infringe directly and/or indirectly the Smoker Patent. Id. at ¶ 39. Exhibit 3 to the Complaint shows that an ordinary observer would be deceived into thinking that the Infringing Products were the same as the Smoker Patent. [Dkt. No. 1-2, 2-1]. See Competitive Edge, Inc. v. Staples, Inc., 763 F. Supp. 2d 997, 1011 (N.D. Ill. 2010) (citing Egyptian Goddess, Inc. v. Swisa, Inc., 543 F.3d 665, 672 (Fed. Cir. 2008)). Finally, Plaintiff alleged that it has not licensed or authorized Defendant to use the Smoker Patent, and the Defendant is not an authorized retailer. [Dkt. No. 1] at ¶ 37. Since the Defendant has failed to answer or otherwise plead in this matter, the Court must accept the allegations contained in Plaintiff’s Complaint as true. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b)(6); Am. Taxi Dispatch, Inc., v. Am. Metro Taxi & Limo Co., 582 F. Supp. 2d 999, 1004 (N.D. Ill. 2008). Accordingly, Plaintiff requests entry of judgment with respect to Count I for patent infringement against the Defendant.

IV. PLAINTIFF IS ENTITLED TO DAMAGES UNDER 35 U.S.C. § 284.

Under 35 U.S.C. § 284, upon finding for the claimant, the court shall award damages adequate to compensate for the infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by the infringer, together with interest and costs as fixed by the court. 35 USCS § 284. The overriding purpose of § 284 is to afford patent owners complete compensation for infringements WesternGeco LLC v. ION Geophysical Corp., 585 U.S. 407, 138 S. Ct. 2129 (2018). The statute further provides that “[w]hen the damages are not found by a jury, the court shall assess them” and “may increase the damages up to three times the amount found or assessed.” 35 USCS § 284.

In this case, the well-pleaded allegations in the Complaint, which are taken as true upon default, establish that Defendant has infringed Plaintiff’s ‘440 Patent by selling automatic smoker product that incorporate the patented technology without authorization. The limited financial information available shows that Defendant has generated revenue of at least $47,351.11 from the sale of the Infringing Products, demonstrating the commercial success of the infringing activity. Brees Decl. ¶ 5.

A plaintiff has the burden of proving damages to a reasonable degree of certainty. Phoenix Bond & Indem. Co. v. Bridge, 911 F. Supp. 2d 661, 675 (N.D. Ill. September 5, 2012) (citing Haslund v. Simon Prop. Grp., Inc., 378 F.3d 653, 658 (7th Cir. 2004)). But as the Seventh Circuit stated in an earlier appeal in this case, when it comes to damages, "the plaintiff has a more relaxed burden of proof than on the issue of causation." Id. (citing BCS Servs., Inc. v. Heartwood 88, LLC, 637 F.3d 750, 759 (7th Cir. 2011)). When a defendant's wrong makes it difficult for the plaintiff to prove damages, all reasonable doubts about the amount of damages are resolved in the plaintiff's favor. Id.; see Bigelow v. RKO Radio Pictures, Inc., 327 U.S. 251, 264-66 (1946). "Once the plaintiff proves injury, broad latitude is allowed in quantifying damages, especially when the defendant's own conduct impedes quantification." Phoenix Bond, 911 F. Supp. 2d at 675. "Speculation has its place in estimating damages, and doubts should be resolved against the wrongdoer." Mid-America Tablewares v. Mogi Trading Co., 100 F.3d 1353, 1365 (7th Cir. 1996) (quoting Olympia Equipment Leasing Co. v. Western Union Telegraph Co., 797 F.2d 370, 383 (7th Cir. 1986)), certiorari denied, 480 U.S. 934.

A. Plaintiff’s Calculation of a Reasonable Royalty

A reasonable royalty is the minimum award provided by the Patent Act and thus the starting point to calculate damages. See 35 U.S.C. § 284 (“Upon finding for the claimant the court shall award the claimant damages adequate to compensate for the infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by the infringer, together with interest and costs as fixed by the court.”). To determine reasonable royalty damages, a “willing licensor-willing licensee” approach is used. This approach attempts to ascertain the royalty upon which the parties would have agreed had they successfully negotiated an agreement just before infringement began. See Northlake Mktg. & Supply, Inc. v. Glaverbel, S.A., 72 F. Supp. 2d 893, 911 (N.D. Ill 1999); Georgia-Pacific Corp. v. United States Plywood Corp., 318 F. Supp. 1116, 1120 (S.D.N.Y. 1970), modified, 446 F.2d 295 (2d Cir. 1971), cert. denied, 404 U.S. 870 (1971); See also Hanson v. Alpine Valley Ski Area, Inc., 718 F.2d 1075 (Fed. Cir. 1983); Radio Steel & Mfg. Co. v. MTD Prods., Inc., 788 F.2d 1554, 1557 (Fed. Cir. 1986) (“The determination of a reasonable royalty, however, is based not on the infringer’s profit, but on the royalty to which a willing licensor and a willing licensee would have agreed at the time the infringement began”).

Plaintiff has calculated that royalty to include a baseline $10,000 plus 10% of sales as supported by the Declaration of Plaintiff’s Store Operations Manager, Xiaoling Chen (“Chen Decl.”) attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Plaintiff values its lawful patent rights by excluding others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing to the U.S. any products that embody the ‘440 Patent. Accordingly, Plaintiff would not voluntarily grant a license to any Defendant. See Chen Decl. ¶ 9. However, even without a license, the Defendant sold products that infringe the ‘440 Patent for a price lower than that of Plaintiff’s genuine products, thus, undercutting Plaintiff’s business and eroding its prices. Id. at 10. Due to the inescapable price erosion and lost sales that would arise from licensing the ‘440 Patent, if forced to accept a licensing agreement under the “willing licensor-willing licensee” standard, Plaintiff would demand a licensing fee of no less than $10,000.00 USD plus 10% of each of Defendant’s sales of the Infringing Products in exchange for a non-exclusive license, with the licensee being responsible for all transaction costs associated with negotiation of the licensing, such as drafting costs, due diligence, and attorneys’ fees. Id. at ¶ 12.

Regarding the 10% of sales, the figures are calculated based on discovery from Amazon under the temporary restraining order. As required by that order, Amazon produced information regarding sales of the infringing products identified on Schedule A. An excerpt of the production from Amazon is attached as Exhibit 2. The information received from Amazon is also shown in the Brees Decl. ¶ 6 in the columns labeled as “Number of Infringing Products Sold”, and “Infringing Product Revenue” with the same “Infringing Product Revenue” being shown in ¶ 7.

The Total Royalty is calculated by adding the requested $10,000.00 royalty fee with the 10% of Infringing Product Revenue. The sales information provided by Amazon, only includes the infringing products included in the Infringement Evidence filed as Exhibit 2 to the Complaint. [Dkt. No. 1-2]. Consequently, the requested royalty is calculated based only on infringing sales and does not include sales of other products.

Plaintiff elects to seek damages of reasonable royalty against the Defendants.

B. Plaintiff is Entitled to Transactional Costs

Again, a reasonable royalty is the statutory floor for an award upon a finding of patent infringement. See 35 U.S.C. § 284. Plaintiff is entitled to a full award “adequate to compensate for the infringement.” Id. Such compensatory damages seek to determine “the difference between the [Plaintiff’s] pecuniary condition after infringement, and what his condition would have been if the infringement had not occurred.” Aro Mfg. Co. v. Convertible Top Replacement Co., 377 U.S. 476, 507 (1964). The Federal Circuit has interpreted § 284 to be expansive rather than limiting. For example, in Minco, the Federal Circuit noted that “damages under section 284 does not limit the patent holder to the amount of diverted sales of a commercial embodiment of the patented product.” Minco, Inc. v. Combustion Eng’g, Inc., 95 F.3d 1109, 1118 (Fed. Cir. 1996). Likewise, in Rite-Hite, the Court recognized that the statute sets only a lower limit, with no other restrictions on how to calculate damages. Rite-Hite Corp. v. Kelley Co., 56 F.3d 1538, 1544 (Fed. Cir. 1995) (“the language of the statute is expansive rather than limiting. It affirmatively states that damages must be adequate, while providing only a lower limit and no other limitation.”). Finally, the Federal Circuit has “previously recognized that patentees may be entitled to damages above a reasonable royalty on theories entirely distinct from lost profits.” Mars, Inc. v. Coin Acceptors, Inc., 527 F.3d 1359, 1366 (Fed. Cir. 2008) (citing Minco, 95 F.3d at 1120).

Consequently, Plaintiff is not limited to the mere minimum of a reasonable royalty (as calculated above) and is not limited to a theory of lost profits when seeking an award above that statutory minimum. Here, Plaintiff has specifically requested an award of transactional costs. These damages stem from the hypothetical negotiation of a willing licensor and a willing licensee had the parties negotiated a license before the Defendant’s infringement; in other words, they relate to “the difference between the [Plaintiff’s] pecuniary condition after infringement, and what his condition would have been if the infringement had not occurred.” Aro 377 U.S. at 507.

Core Dist., Inc. v. Doe, 16-cv-04059, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 200383 (D. Minn. Nov. 27, 2018) has significant persuasive value because, while out of District, it too involved a “Schedule A” style case against a series of infringers and a request for default judgement against the infringers who failed to appear. Id. at *2. Core is also an example of a default judgment order in a “Schedule A” style case that a) involved a claim for patent infringement and b) is reported by a digital reporting service (Lexis.com) and thus searchable. The vast majority of such decisions are not reported and are thus difficult to identify without specific knowledge of the case. In Core, the Court explained that transaction costs were justified because they would have been required by the patentee in relation to costs incurred in due diligence, negotiation, and drafting of any license agreement. Id. at *20-21. The Core Court is not alone in this assessment. Attached as Exhibit 3 is a collection of unreported cases, within this District, that have similarly awarded transaction costs to patentees in default judgments. See Ex. 4 at Cao Group v. The Individuals et al., N.D. Ill. Case No. 24-cv-1211, Dkt. No. 92 at p. 6 (awarding $50,000 against 25 defendants or $2,000 each); Shenzhen Jisu Tech. Co. Ltd. v. The Individuals et al., N.D. Ill. Case No. 24-C-5905, Dkt. No. 53 at p. 5 (awarding $5,000 in transaction costs against a single defaulting defendant); Weisner Healthcare Innovation LLC v. The Individuals et al., N.D. Ill. Case

No. 24-cv-3777, Dkt. 53 at p. 5 (awarding $50,000 in transaction costs against 21 defaulting defendants or $2,380.95 each); and Zhang et al. v. The Individuals et al., N.D. Ill. Case No. 23-cv-6434, Dkt. 106, at p. 4-5 (awarding $50,000 in transaction costs against 29 defaulting defendants or $1,724.14 each).

Plaintiff elects to seek an award of $10,000 in transaction costs against the Defendant. See Brees Decl. ¶ 9.

C. Plaintiff's Calculation of a Lost Profits

To recover lost profits, the patent owner bears the burden of proving that, but for the infringement, the plaintiff would have made the sales for which lost profits are sought. American Seating Co. v. USSC Group, Inc., 514 F.3d 1262, 1269 (Fed. Cir. 2008); State Industries, Inc. v. Mor-Flo Indus., Inc., 883 F.2d 1573, 1577 (Fed. Cir. 1989), cert. denied, 493 U.S. 1022 (1990). In State Industries, the Federal Circuit expressly affirmed the use of the four factors set forth in Panduit Corp. v. Stahlin Bros., as a nonexclusive standard for determining lost profits. See, Id. The four factors articulated in Panduit Corp. v. Stahlin Bros. are: (1) demand for the patented product, (2) absence of acceptable non-infringing substitutes, (3) manufacturing and marketing capability to exploit the demand, and (4) the amount of the profit that would have been made. Panduit Corp. v. Stahlin Bros. Fibre Works, Inc., 575 F.2d 1152, 1156 (6th Cir. 1978).

Applying these principles here, Plaintiff has satisfied each element of the Panduit test. Specifically, Plaintiff would have made a sale for each product sold by Defendant because Plaintiff has not provided any licenses to any other party and was therefore the only party who could sell the electronic drink smoker on the market. See, Chen Decl. at ¶¶ 6 and 7. There is significant demand for the electronic drink smoker products covered by the '440 Patent. Id. at ¶ 6 and ¶ 13. Plaintiff has the capability to meet the demand captured by the Defendant. Id. at ¶ 6. While there are similar products available on the market, none of them offer the same features and functionality as Plaintiff's automatic electronic cocktail smoker Products. Id. Therefore, there is an absence of acceptable non-infringing substitutes that consumers can rely on. Lastly, Plaintiff would have made an average profit of $49.99 per unit sold by the Defaulting Defendants. Chen Decl. at ¶ 11. Accordingly, but for the Defendant's infringement, Plaintiff would have made the sales for which lost profits are sought.

According to the sales information received by the Plaintiff from Amazon, the Defendant sold 1,779 units of Infringing Products. See Brees Decl. ¶ 6. Plaintiff's amount of lost profits is included in the right column of the table shown in Paragraph 6 of the Brees Decl. with the title "(Lost Profit Award") and is calculated by multiplying the number of units sold with the average profit the Plaintiff would have made from that sale. However, the limited Infringing Product revenue information available only includes revenue figures for a single product having a unique product identification number. See Brees Decl.

Because Defendant failed to participate in this proceeding, Plaintiff is unable to determine the actual sales figures and revenues generated. Brees Decl. ¶ 12. Also, due to the Defendant's non-participation, Plaintiff has limited access to information regarding Defendant's profits from the sale of the Infringing Products. Id. at ¶ 13. As a result, Defendant has failed to produce information which may have demonstrated expenses and costs that would have deducted from a profits calculation. WMS Gaming, Inc. v. WPC Prods. Ltd., 542 F.3d 601, 608 (7th Cir. 2008).

Plaintiff elects to seek damages of lost profits against the Defendant.

D. Plaintiff's Election and Calculation of Damages

Based on the foregoing, the Court should award lost profits against the Defendant. Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court to grant Plaintiff the damages award for Defendant as shown in the in Table 1 below, which lists the Total Damages Sought for Defendant:

Store Alias	Total Damages Sought

V. PLAINTIFF IS ENTITLED TO PERMANENT INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.

In addition to the foregoing relief, Plaintiff respectfully requests entry of a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from infringing or otherwise violating Plaintiff's rights in the Smoker Patent, including at least all injunctive relief previously awarded by this Court to Plaintiff in the TRO and Preliminary Injunction. Plaintiff incorporates by reference its arguments in its Memorandum in Support of its Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, and Memorandum in Support of its Motion for Preliminary Injunction. [Dkt. Nos. 16, 31-1]. Plaintiff is also entitled to injunctive relief so it can quickly act against any new e-commerce stores that are identified, found to be linked to Defendant, and selling Infringing Products. See, e.g., Tuf-Tite, Inc. v. Fed. Package Networks, Inc., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 163352, at *29 (N.D. Ill. 2014); Scholle Corp. v. Rapak LLC, 35 F. Supp. 3d 1005, 1009 (N.D. Ill. 2014); Nike, Inc. v. Fujian Bestwinn Industry Co., Ltd., 166 F. Supp. 3d 1177, 1178-79 (D. Nev. 2016).

VI. PLAINTIFF IS ENTITLED TO AN AWARD OF COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES

Plaintiff seeks an award of all costs pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d)(1) including but not limited to fees of the clerk, fees for printed or electronically recorded transcripts necessarily obtained for use in the case; fees and disbursements for printing and witnesses; fees for exemplification and the costs of making copies of any materials where the copies are necessarily obtained for use in the case; and docket fees. Se-Kure Controls, Inc. v. Vanguard Products Group, Inc. (N.D. Ill. 2012) 873 F.Supp.2d 939, 943. Plaintiff also seeks an award of attorney's fees pursuant to the Patent Act's fee-shifting provision in exceptional cases. 35 U.S.C.A. § 285 (West) Exceptional cases are those that stand out from others due to "substantive strength of a party's litigating position (considering both the governing law and the facts of the case) or the unreasonable manner in which the case was litigated. Octane Fitness, LLC v. ICON Health & Fitness, Inc., (2014) 572 U.S. 545, 554 [134 S.Ct. 1749, 1756, 188 L.Ed.2d 816]. An exceptional case finding may be "properly be based on either willful infringement or bad faith conduct. Northlake Marketing & Supply, Inc. v. Glaverbel, S.A. (N.D. Ill. 1999) 72 F.Supp.2d 893, 909. Willful patent infringement requires Plaintiff to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the "alleged infringer acted in disregard of the Patent and had no reasonable basis for believing it had a right to do so." Trading Technologies Intern., Inc. v. eSpeed, Inc. (N.D. Ill. 2006) 431 F.Supp.2d 834.

Here, the Defendant willfully infringed the Smoker Patent as evidenced by their actions upon filing this suit. Defendant did not participate in this case and did respond to emails from us or notifications from third-party e-commerce platforms. The Defendant had no reasonable basis for believing they had a right to infringe the Smoker Patent. Rather than answering the lawsuit, the Defendant willfully chose not to fight the infringement claims and abandon their storefronts instead. Defendant therefore willfully infringed the Smoker Patent and acted in bad faith by absconding with their ill-gotten gains. Further, Plaintiff stands in a substantively strong position with its infringement claims, whereas Defendant has not participated. Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that the Court award costs to Plaintiff, find that this case is exemplary, and, in its discretion, award attorney fees to Plaintiff.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter default judgment against the Defendant, including damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 against the Defendant, which should be enhanced by the Court three times the amount assessed, and a permanent injunction order prohibiting Defendant from selling Infringing Products. Plaintiff further seeks an order that, for Defendant wherein infringing product revenue is unknown, all assets in Defendant's financial accounts, including those operated by Amazon, as well as any newly discovered assets, be transferred to Plaintiff. Plaintiff further seeks an award of costs and attorney fees. Lastly, Plaintiff requests a court order awarding costs and attorney fees to Plaintiff and requiring Plaintiff to provide necessary documentation within 30 days.

Plaintiff,

v.

MIKESIER,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:26-cv-00734-SJC-AB

Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman

Magistrate Albert Berry, III.

DECLARATION OF XIAOLING CHEN IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT AND DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST MIKISIER

I, Xiaoling Chen, of Shenzhen, China declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct:

1. I am over the age of 18 years. This declaration is based upon my personal knowledge of the facts stated herein. If called as a witness, I could and would testify as to the statements made herein.

2. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment (the "Motion").

3. I am the store operations manager of Shenzhen Peishi Advertising Media Co., Ltd. ("Plaintiff").

4. Plaintiff is the lawful assignee of all right, title, and interest in U.S. Patent No. U.S. Patent No. 12,324,440 entitled AUTOMATIC SMOKER (the '440 Patent). See Complaint, Exhibit 2.

5. Plaintiff has been engaged in the business of designing, sourcing, and marketing automatic electronic cocktail smoker products. Plaintiff markets and sells its automatic electronic cocktail smoker that embodies the '440 Patent ("Plaintiff's Smoker") through various outlets including an e-commerce store on the Amazon marketplace platform.

6. Plaintiff's products that embody the '440 Patent have been highly commercially successful.

7. Plaintiff has not granted any licenses of rights to its '440 Patent to any of the defendants named in the Schedule "A" to the Complaint (the "Defendants"), including the defendants who have failed to file a response to the Complaint or properly appear in this case ("Defaulting Defendants").

8. The Defaulting Defendant is not an authorized retailers of Plaintiff's Smoker.

9. Plaintiff would not have voluntarily granted a license of the '440 Patent to the Defaulting Defendant.

10. Plaintiff has suffered harm in the forms of lost sales and price erosion due to the Defendant's infringement of the '440 Patent. Specifically, Defendant is undercutting Plaintiff by selling products that embody the invention claimed in the '440 Patent at a significantly lower price than the genuine Plaintiff's Smoker.

11. Before infringement occurred, Plaintiff sold the Plaintiff's Smoker at a retail price of $99.99 and had a profit margin of 50%, equating to $49.995 per Plaintiff's Smoker sold by Plaintiff.

12. Before the infringement occurred, an unexclusive license for the '440 Patent would have cost the licensee at least $10,000.00 USD plus a 10% royalty for all sales made by the licensee with the licensee bearing all transaction costs associated with the negotiation of the royalty, such as drafting costs, due diligence, and attorneys' fees.

13. The marketplace success of Plaintiff's Smoker has resulted in significant infringement of its '440 Patent. Plaintiff has, therefore, instituted a worldwide anti-infringement program and regularly investigates suspicious e-commerce stores identified in proactive internet sweeps and reported by consumers.

14. Plaintiff has identified numerous e-commerce stores, including those operating the Platform, which were offering for sale and/or selling products embodying the '440 Patent to consumers into the State of Illinois and throughout the United States.

15. Defendant's unauthorized use of Plaintiff's '440 Patent has caused, and continues to cause, irreparable harm to Plaintiff through loss of the ability to exclude others from using its patent and loss of future revenue.

16. The extent of the harm to Plaintiff's patent rights, including dilution, and the diversion of customers are irreparable and incalculable, thus warranting an immediate halt to Defendants' infringing activities through injunctive relief.

17. Plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage if a permanent injunction is not issued.

18. Defendant has eliminated the exclusivity to practice the '440 Patent that Plaintiff is entitled to under U.S. patent laws.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Case No.: 1:24-cv-01211

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiff CAO Group, Inc. ("Plaintiff") against the defendants identified on Schedule A, and using the Online Marketplace Accounts identified on Schedule A (collectively, the "Defendant Internet Stores"), and Plaintiff having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the defendants identified on Schedule A, with the exception of Defendant Nos. 4) DEEPSOUND, 5) BYS Technology, 6) haiyi_mall, 7) wendydy, 8) GD-Whitening, 10) Carbonline, 21) IMOSTY Whitening US, 23) Moose Store, 25) Newage-Store, 26) BLUE ELF, 27) Acupress, 32) tstarlight, 36) homefromgoods, 43) fairywill_global, 44) beapoint, and 66) Fairywill,¹ attached hereto which have not yet been dismissed from this case (collectively, "Defaulting Defendants");

This Court having entered a preliminary injunction; Plaintiff having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendants, the combination of providing notice via e-mail, along with any notice that Defaulting Defendants received from online marketplaces and payment processors, being notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defaulting Defendants of the pendency of the action and affording them the opportunity to answer and present their objections; and

None of the Defaulting Defendants having answered or appeared in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendants because Defaulting Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products that infringe upon Plaintiff's federally registered patents, as claim in in U.S. Patent Nos. 10,603,259 B2 ("the '259 Patent"); 10,646,419 B2 ("the '419 Patent"); and 11,219,582 B2 ("the '582 Patent") (collectively, "Plaintiff's Patents") to residents of Illinois. In this case, Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products that infringe Plaintiff's Patents. See Schedule A and Exhibit 3 to the Verified Amended Complaint, Docket Nos. [19-1] and [19-6], which includes links and product ID numbers for the subject storefronts and infringing products and screenshot evidence confirming that each Defendant e-commerce store does stand ready, willing and able to ship its infringing products to customers in Illinois; see also Exhibit 7 to the Verified Amended Complaint, Docket Nos. [20]-[21], which are claim charts outlining infringement by each Defendant.

This Court further finds that Defaulting Defendants are liable for willful patent infringement on each of the three patent infringement claims (Counts I, II, and III) in Plaintiff's Verified Amended Complaint.

Accordingly, this Court orders that Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendants are deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendants.

This Court further orders that:

1. Defaulting Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be permanently enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. Making, using offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale any products that infringe upon Plaintiff's Patents or use of any product that infringes upon Plaintiff's Patents in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine Plaintiff product or not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with Plaintiff's Patents;
 - b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Plaintiff product or any other product produced by Plaintiff, that is not Plaintiff's or not produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff for use of the inventions claimed in Plaintiff's Patents;

- c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defaulting Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiff and its rights in Plaintiff's Patents; and
 - d. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiff, nor authorized by Plaintiff to be sold or offered for sale, and which infringe upon the inventions claimed in Plaintiff's Patents.
2. Defaulting Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defaulting Defendants, or in connection with any of the Defaulting Defendants' Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Amazon.com, Inc. ("Amazon"), eBay, Inc. ("eBay"), and Walmart, Inc. ("Walmart"), (collectively, the "Third Party Providers"), shall within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order cease:
 - a. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Online Marketplace Accounts, or any other online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defaulting Defendants could continue to sell goods that infringe upon Plaintiff's Patents; and
 - b. operating and/or hosting websites that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product infringing Plaintiff's Patents or any reproductions, copies or colorable imitations thereof that is not a genuine Plaintiff product or not authorized by Plaintiff to utilize the inventions claimed in Plaintiff's Patents.

3. Upon Plaintiff's request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 2, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defaulting Defendants in connection with the sale of infringing goods using the inventions claimed in Plaintiff's Patents.
4. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Plaintiff is awarded damages equal to either a reasonable royalty or lost profits as follows:
 - a. Plaintiff is awarded $50,000.00 as a reasonable royalty against any Defaulting Defendant who caused Plaintiff to lose $100,000.00 or less in lost profits;
 - b. Plaintiff is awarded $500,000.00 as a reasonable royalty against any Defaulting Defendant who caused Plaintiff to lose equal to or between $100,000.00 and $500,000.00 in lost profits; and
 - c. Based upon the Panduit factors, Plaintiff is awarded lost profits for any Defaulting Defendant who caused Plaintiff to lose more than $500,000.00 in lost profits.

The amount awarded to Plaintiff from each of the Defaulting Defendants is listed below:

Case No. 24 C 5905

Hon. LaShonda A. Hunt

DEFAULT FINAL JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiff Shenzhen Jisu Technology Co. Ltd., ("Plaintiff") against the defendant, Shenzhen hengshenghang Industrial Co., Ltd, identified on Schedule A, and using the Online Marketplace Accounts identified on Schedule A (collectively, the "Defendant Internet Stores"), and Plaintiff having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the defendant identified on Schedule A attached hereto which have not yet been dismissed from this case (collectively, "Defaulting Defendant");

This Court having entered a preliminary injunction; Plaintiff having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendant, the combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defaulting Defendant received from marketplaces and/or payment processors, being notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defaulting Defendant of the pendency of the action and affording them the opportunity to answer and present their objections; and

The Defaulting Defendant having failed to answer or appear in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendant because Defaulting Defendant directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendant has targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offers shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accepts payment in U.S. dollars and/or funds from U.S. bank accounts, and has sold products that infringe upon Plaintiff's rights in U.S. Patent Nos. 11,635,083 B2 ("the '083 Patent"); 11,661,947 B2 ("the '947 Patent"); 11,719,250 B2 ("the '250 Patent"); and 11,920,602 B2 ("the '602 Patent") (collectively, "Plaintiff's Patents") to residents of Illinois. In this case, Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products that infringe the Plaintiff's Patents. See Amended Schedule A to the Complaint [25-1] which includes links and product ID numbers for the subject storefronts and infringing products; see also Exhibit 2 to the Complaint [27] and [28], claim charts outlining infringement.

Asserted Patent	Owner(s) by Assignment
U.S. Patent No. 11,635,083 B2	Shenzhen Jisu Technology Co., Ltd.
U.S. Patent No. 11,661,947 B2	Shenzhen Jisu Technology Co., Ltd.
U.S. Patent No. 11,719,250 B2	Shenzhen Jisu Technology Co., Ltd.
U.S. Patent No. 11,920,602 B2	Shenzhen Jisu Technology Co., Ltd.

This Court further finds that Defaulting Defendant are liable for patent infringement (35 U.S.C. § 271).

Accordingly, this Court orders that Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendant are deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendant.

This Court further orders that:

1. Defaulting Defendant, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be permanently enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. Making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale any products that infringe upon Plaintiff's Patents or use of any product that infringes upon Plaintiff's Patents in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine Plaintiff product or not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with Plaintiff's Patents;
 - b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Plaintiff product or any other product produced by Plaintiff, that is not Plaintiff's or not produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff for use of the invention claimed in Plaintiff's Patents;

Magistrate Judge Sheila M. Finnegan

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiff Wiesner Healthcare Innovation LLC, ("Plaintiff") against the defendants identified on Schedule A, and using the Online Marketplace Accounts identified on Schedule A (collectively, the "Defendant Internet Stores"), and Plaintiff having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the defendants identified on Schedule A, attached hereto which have not yet been dismissed from this case (collectively, "Defaulting Defendants");

This Court having entered a preliminary injunction; Plaintiff having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendants, the combination of providing notice via e-mail, along with any notice that Defaulting Defendants received from online marketplaces and payment processors, being notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defaulting

Defendants of the pendency of the action and affording them the opportunity to answer and present their objections; and

None of the Defaulting Defendants having answered or appeared in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendants because Defaulting Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products that infringe upon Plaintiff's federally registered patents, as claimed in U.S. Patent Nos. 10,624,728 B2 ("the '728 Patent"); 11,351,020 B2 ("the '020 Patent"); and 11,642,205 B2 ("the '205 Patent") (collectively, "Plaintiff's Patents") to residents of Illinois. In this case, Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products that infringe Plaintiff's Patents. See Schedule A and Exhibit 3 to the Verified Amended Complaint, Docket Nos. [14-1] and [14-6], which includes links and product ID numbers for the subject storefronts and infringing products and screenshot evidence confirming that each Defendant e-commerce store does stand ready, willing and able to ship its infringing products to customers in Illinois; see also Exhibit 7 to the Verified Amended Complaint, Docket No. [14-7], which contains exemplary claim charts outlining how Unauthorized Products infringe at least Claim 1 of each of Plaintiff's Patents.

This Court further finds that Defaulting Defendants are liable for willful patent infringement on each of the three patent infringement claims (Counts I, II, and III), trade dress infringement (Count IV), and unjust enrichment and unfair competition under Illinois common law (Counts V and VI) in Plaintiff's Verified Amended Complaint.

Accordingly, this Court orders that Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendants are deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendants.

This Court further orders that:

1. Defaulting Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be permanently enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. Making, using offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale any products that infringe upon Plaintiff's Patents or use of any product that infringes upon Plaintiff's Patents in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine Plaintiff product or not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with Plaintiff's Patents;
 - b. using Plaintiff's trade dress or any reproductions, infringing copies, or colorable imitations in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not Plaintiff's genuine product or not authorized by Plaintiff for sale under Plaintiff's trade dress;
 - c. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Plaintiff product or any other product produced by Plaintiff, that is not Plaintiff's or not

- produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff for sale that is protected under Plaintiff's Patents or Plaintiff's trade dress;
- d. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defaulting Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiff and its rights in Plaintiff's Patents; and
 - e. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiff, nor authorized by Plaintiff to be sold or offered for sale, and which embody any of the Claims of Plaintiff's Patents or which use Plaintiff's trade dress.
2. Defaulting Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defaulting Defendants, or in connection with any of the Defaulting Defendants' Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Amazon.com, Inc. ("Amazon"), eBay, Inc. ("eBay"), WhaleCo, Inc., ("Temu"), and Walmart, Inc. ("Walmart"), (collectively, the "Third Party Providers"), shall within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order cease:
- a. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Online Marketplace Accounts, or any other online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defaulting Defendants could continue to sell goods that infringe upon Plaintiff's Patents or Plaintiff's trade dress; and

- b. operating and/or hosting websites that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product infringing Plaintiff's Patents or Plaintiff's trade dress or any reproductions, copies or colorable imitations thereof that is not a genuine Plaintiff product or not authorized by Plaintiff to utilize the inventions claimed in Plaintiff's Patents or Plaintiff's trade dress.
3. Upon Plaintiff's request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third-Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 2, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defaulting Defendants in connection with the sale of infringing goods using the inventions claimed in Plaintiff's Patents or using Plaintiff's trade dress.
4. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Plaintiff is awarded damages equal to a reasonable royalty from each of the Defaulting Defendants in the amount of $10,000.00.
5. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Plaintiff is awarded expected transaction costs associated with the hypothetical negotiations and drafting of royalty and licensing agreements between it and the twenty-one (21) Defaulting Defendants listed below. Plaintiff is awarded $50,000.00 in expected transaction costs, or $2,380.95 per Defaulting Defendant.
6. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Defaulting Defendants are subject to treble damages and Plaintiff is awarded three times the amount awarded in both paragraphs 4 and 5.
7. Additionally, this case is held exceptional, and Plaintiff is awarded its reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285. This Court finds that an award of $14,155.33 in attorneys' fees is reasonable, $674.06 per Defaulting Defendant, and therefore awards Plaintiff $14,155.33 in attorneys' fees, $674.06 from each of the Defaulting Defendants.

8. As a result of the damages awarded to Plaintiff in paragraphs 4 through 7 of this Order, the total awarded to the Plaintiff is $37,816.91 per Defaulting Defendant.
9. Any Third-Party Providers holding funds for Defaulting Defendants, including Amazon, eBay, PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”), Payoneer Global, Inc. (“Payoneer”), Temu, and Walmart, shall, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order, permanently restrain and enjoin any accounts connected to Defaulting Defendants or the Defendant Internet Stores from transferring or disposing of any funds (up to the total damages and attorneys’ fees awarded in Paragraph 4 through 8 above) or other of Defaulting Defendants’ assets.
10. All monies (up to the total damages and attorneys’ fees awarded in Paragraph 4 through 8 above) currently restrained in Defaulting Defendants’ financial accounts, including monies held by Third-Party Providers such as Amazon, eBay, PayPal, Payoneer, Temu, and Walmart, are hereby released to Plaintiff as partial payment of the above-identified damages, and Third Party Providers, including Amazon, eBay, PayPal, Payoneer, Temu, and Walmart, are ordered to release to Plaintiff the amounts from Defaulting Defendants’ financial accounts within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of this Order.
11. Until Plaintiff has recovered full payment of monies owed to it by any Defaulting Defendant, Plaintiff shall have the ongoing authority to commence supplemental proceedings under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69.
12. In the event that Plaintiff identifies any additional online marketplace accounts or financial accounts owned by Defaulting Defendants, Plaintiff may send notice of any supplemental proceeding, including a citation to discover assets, to Defaulting Defendants by e-mail at the e-mail addresses identified in Exhibit 3 to Verified Amended Complaint and any e-mail addresses provided for Defaulting Defendants by third parties.

13. The ten-thousand dollar ($10,000.00) surety bond posted by Plaintiff is hereby released to Plaintiff or its counsel, Bishop Diehl & Lee, Ltd. The Clerk of the Court is directed to return the surety bond previously deposited with the Clerk of the Court to Plaintiff or its counsel.

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER

This action having been commenced by Plaintiffs Guowei Zhang and Qujing Lingli E-Commerce Co. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) against the Defendants identified on Schedule A attached hereto, and Online Marketplace Accounts identified on Schedule A (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores”), and Plaintiffs having moved for entry of Default and Default Judgment against the defendants which have not yet been dismissed from this case, identified on the updated Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defaulting Defendants”);

Plaintiffs having properly completed service of process on Defaulting Defendants, the combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defaulting Defendants received from online marketplaces and payment processors, being notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defaulting Defendants of the pendency of the action and affording them the opportunity to answer and present their objections; and

None of the Defaulting Defendants having answered or appeared in any way, and the time for answering having expired, so that the allegations of the Complaint are uncontroverted and are deemed admitted;

This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defaulting Defendants because Defaulting Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, Plaintiffs have provided a basis to conclude that Defaulting Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products using designs that infringe upon Plaintiffs' rights in U.S. Patent No. D966,499 ("Plaintiffs' Patent") to residents of Illinois. In this case, Plaintiffs have presented links to each Defaulting Defendant's e-commerce store and the infringing products sold by the Defaulting Defendants showing that each Defaulting Defendant is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products that infringe Plaintiffs' Patent. See Amended Schedule A to the Complaint [37] which includes links and product ID numbers for the subject storefronts and infringing products; see also Exhibit 1 to the Supplement in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment [102-1] – screenshots of Defendants' selling infringing products, and Exhibit 2 to the Supplement in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Entry of Default and Default Judgment [102-2] – claim charts outlining infringement for each of the remaining Defendants.

This Court further finds that Defaulting Defendants are liable for willful patent infringement (Claim I).

Accordingly, this Court orders that Plaintiffs' Motion for Entry of Final Default Judgment is GRANTED as follows, that Defaulting Defendants are deemed in default, and that this Default Judgment is entered against Defaulting Defendants.

This Court further orders that:

enjoined and restrained from:

- a. using the design claimed in Plaintiffs' Patent or any reproductions or colorable imitations in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine product of Plaintiffs' or not authorized by Plaintiffs' to be sold in connection with the design claimed in Plaintiffs' Patent;
 - b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Plaintiffs' product or any other product produced by Plaintiffs', that is not Plaintiffs' or not produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiffs and approved by Plaintiffs for use of the design claimed in Plaintiffs' Patent;
 - c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defaulting Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiffs, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiffs and its rights in Plaintiffs' Patent; and
 - d. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiffs, nor authorized by Plaintiffs to be sold or offered for sale, and which incorporate the design claimed in Plaintiffs' Patent, or any reproductions or colorable imitations thereof.
2. Defaulting Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defaulting Defendants, or in connection with any of the Defaulting Defendants' Online Marketplaces, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Amazon.com, Inc. ("Amazon"), eBay, Inc. ("eBay"), Jingdong E-Commerce (Trade) Hong Kong Corporation Limited ("Joybuy"), and Walmart, Inc.

(“Walmart”) (collectively, the “Third-Party Providers”), shall within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order cease:

- a. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Online Marketplace Accounts, or any other online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defaulting Defendants could continue to sell goods using designs that infringe upon Plaintiffs’ Patent; and
 - b. operating and/or hosting webpages that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product bearing the design of Plaintiffs’ Patent or any reproductions or colorable imitations thereof that is not a genuine product of Plaintiffs’ or not authorized by Plaintiffs to utilize the design of Plaintiffs’ Patent.
3. Upon Plaintiffs’ request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third-Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 2, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defaulting Defendants in connection with the sale of infringing goods using design claimed in Plaintiffs’ Patent.
4. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Plaintiffs are awarded damages equal to a reasonable royalty from each of the Defaulting Defendants, with the exception of Defendant No. 53 AONI Store and Defendant No. 78 CONSLAT, in the amount of $10,000.00.
5. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Defaulting Defendants, with the exception of Defendant No. 53 AONI Store and Defendant No. 78 CONSLAT, are subject to treble damages and Plaintiffs are awarded three times the amount awarded in both paragraphs 4.
6. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, Plaintiffs are awarded expected transaction costs associated with the hypothetical negotiations and drafting of royalty and licensing agreements between it and the twenty-nine (29) Defaulting Defendants, not including Def. Nos. 53 and 78, against whom Plaintiffs seek a reasonable royalty. Plaintiffs are awarded $50,000 in expected transaction costs, or $1,724.14 per Defaulting Defendant for which the judgment awarded to Plaintiffs is a reasonable royalty

7. Pursuant to § 289, Plaintiffs are awarded damages equal to the total profits from Defendant No. 53 AONI Store and Defendant No. 78 CONSLAT for willful infringement in the amounts of $216,647.14 and $108,733.58, respectively:

8. Additionally, this case is held exceptional, and Plaintiffs are awarded its reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285. This Court finds that an award of $803.13 per Defaulting Defendant in attorney's fees is reasonable and therefore awards Plaintiffs $803.13 in attorney's fees from each of the Defaulting Defendants.

9. The total amount awarded to Plaintiff from each Defaulting Defendant is listed in the tables below:

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

SHENZHEN PEISHI ADVERTISING
MEDIA CO. LTD.,

Plaintiff,

v.

MIKESIER,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:26-cv-00734-SJC-AB

Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman

Magistrate Albert Berry, III.

DECLARATION OF WILLIAM R. BRES IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT AND DEFAULT JUDGEMENT AGAINST MIKESIER

I, William R. Brees, of the St. Petersburg, Florida, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law, duly admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. I am an attorney for Plaintiff Shenzhen Peishi Advertising Media Co. Ltd. ("Plaintiff"). Except as otherwise expressly stated to the contrary, I have personal knowledge of the following facts and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify as follows:

2. I hereby certify that the Defendant MIKESIER ("Defendant") has failed to answer or otherwise plead in this action within the allotted time provided by the Court;

3. Our office investigated the infringing activities of the Defendant, including attempting to identify the registrant of the associated e-commerce store operating under the Seller Alias MIKESIER and its contact information. Our investigation confirmed that the Defendant is domiciled in China. As such, I am informed and believe that the Defendant is not active-duty members of the U.S. armed forces.

4. The information provided by Amazon for Defendant indicates that the amount currently restrained in Defendant's known financial account is $4,771.25.

5. Additionally, limited information provided by Amazon indicates that the known revenue generated by the Defendant from the sale of Infringing Products is up to at least $47,351.11 (see below chart in paragraph 6). The Infringing Product revenue however only relates to a single product with a unique product identification number.

6. A breakdown of the amount currently restrained Defendant's known infringing sales and Plaintiff's requested profit award is in the table below.

Store Alias	Account Balance	Number of Infringing Products Sold	Infringing Product Revenue	Lost Profit Award
MIKESIER	$4,771.25	1,779	$47,351.11	$88,932.21

7. A breakdown by Defaulting Defendant of the amount currently restrained Defendant's known infringing sales and Plaintiff's requested reasonable royalty award is in the table below. The Total Royalty is calculated by adding the requested $10,000.00 royalty fee with the 10% of Infringing Product Revenue.

Store Alias	Infringing Product Revenue	10% of Infringing Product Revenue	Total Royalty
MIKESIER	$47,351.11	$4,735.11	$14,735.11

8. Plaintiff has decided to seek damages of lost profits from Defendant.

9. Plaintiff seeks an award of transactional costs in the amount of $10,000.00 against the Defendant, to compensate Plaintiff for the hypothetical license negotiation that would have been required had the Defendants negotiated for and entered into licenses as willing licensees.

10. A breakdown by Defaulting Defendant of total amount of damages sought is shown in the table below.

Store Alias	Total Damages Sought
MIKESIER	$88,932.21

11. Because Defaulting Defendant failed to participate in this proceeding, Plaintiff is unable to determine the actual sales figures and revenues generated.

12. Also, due to the Defaulting Defendant's non-participation, Plaintiff has limited access to information regarding Defaulting Defendant's profits from the sale of the Infringing Products.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this the 23rd day of March 2026 at St. Petersburg, Florida.

William R. Brees

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on this 23rd day of March 2026, I electronically filed the foregoing document with the clerk of the Court using the CM/ECF system, which will send notification of such filing to all counsel of record and via electronic service at the addresses provided for by third party e-commerce platforms.
