

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

HONG KONG YU'EN E-COMMERCE CO.
LIMITED,

Plaintiff,

v.

WTXUE CO. LTD,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1:26-cv-00434

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

HONG KONG YU'EN E-COMMERCE CO. LIMITED, (“Plaintiff”), by and through its counsel, the Bayramoglu Law Offices, LLC, hereby files this First Amended Complaint for damages and injunctive relief for Trademark infringement against the Defendant, WTXUE CO. Ltd (“Defendant”), who operates the online storefront on the Walmart platform as described in Exhibit 2 to the Complaint, and hereby alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff established its brand (the “Brand”) in 2017, which focuses on women’s fashion apparel and serves consumers in the United States and worldwide. Since launching the Brand, Plaintiff has invested significant time, financial resources, and corporate efforts to promote, market, develop, and position the Brand as a high-quality and reputable source for women’s fashion apparel, accessories, and related products.

2. As part of its brand promotion, development, and marketing efforts, Plaintiff obtained federal registration from the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the “USPTO”) for multiple trademarks related to its brand (the “Brand Trademarks”). Attached as Exhibit 1 is a true and accurate copy of the United States Registration Certificate issued by the USPTO for the Brand Trademark.

3. The Brand Trademark is valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. Furthermore, the Brand Trademark has been used exclusively and continuously by the Plaintiff, some for many years, and has never been abandoned. The registration of the Brand Trademark serves as prima facie evidence of its validity and of the Plaintiff's exclusive right to use the Brand Trademark pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1057(b).

4. Plaintiff has filed this action to address e-commerce store operators who exploit the Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill by offering for sale and selling products, including clothing, accessories, and other merchandise, through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark (the "Counterfeit Products").

5. Defendant set up an e-commerce store operating under a Seller Alias which advertises, offers for sale, and sells Counterfeit Products to unsuspecting consumers through the unauthorized use, employment, digital incorporation, or other online display of the Brand Trademark. The infringing conduct of the Defendant occurred on Walmart.com (the "Platform").

6. Defendant deceived consumers into believing that the products they purchased were genuine goods made by the Plaintiff. They did this by using the Brand Trademark without permission and supplying Counterfeit Products.

7. In addition, Defendant has attempted to avoid and mitigate its liability by operating under one or more Seller Aliases to conceal its identity and the full scope and interworking of their counterfeiting operation.

8. Counterfeiters like Defendant monitor and post updates on any attempt by a company to enforce its intellectual property rights on the website www.SellerDefense.CN, which has been recognized by numerous courts in this judicial district as a platform used by alleged infringers to report, disclose information related to, and advise infringers of the need to liquidate online platform accounts facing enforcement actions.

9. Plaintiff has filed this lawsuit to combat Defendant's unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark to promote its sales of Counterfeit Products.

10. Plaintiff has also initiated this action to protect the consumer and business goodwill linked to its Brand.

11. Plaintiff has also filed this case to safeguard unknowing and/or unsophisticated consumers, including those in Illinois and within this judicial district, from purchasing Counterfeit Products that are used with the Brand Trademark without permission.

12. Allowing defendant to continue using the Brand Trademark without authorization to promote and sell the counterfeit products has already caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff through consumer confusion, dilution, loss of goodwill, and damage to the value and viability of the Brand Trademark. This entitles the plaintiff to seek both injunctive relief and monetary damages.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)-(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

14. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391

15. This Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendant since Defendant directly targets business activities toward consumers in the United States, including in Illinois, through at least the fully interactive e-commerce store (the "Online Marketplace") operating under a seller alias (the "Seller Alias").

16. Specifically, Defendant has targeted sales to the United States by operating the e-commerce store, which caters to United States consumers, offers shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accepts payment in U.S. dollars, and sells products using illicit copies of the Plaintiff's federally registered trademark. See Exhibit 2 for confirmation Defendant has made a sale into Illinois.

17. Defendant accepts payment for purchases in United States currency and/or funds from United States bank accounts.

18. Defendant has sold Counterfeit Products to residents of Illinois.

19. Defendant is committing tortious acts within this judicial district by engaging in interstate commerce that causes significant harm in Illinois.

THE PARTIES

20. Plaintiff is organized under the laws of the People's Republic of China.

21. The true identity of the Defendant is not yet known because they operate under the Seller Alias listed in Exhibit 2.

22. Based on information and belief, Defendant resides and/or operates in the People's Republic of China or another related foreign jurisdiction.

23. The methods used by Defendant to conceal its identity and the full scope of its operations make it nearly impossible for Plaintiff to uncover Defendant's true identities and how their counterfeit network operates.

24. If the Defendant provides additional credible information about its identity, the Plaintiff will take the necessary steps to amend the Complaint and proceed accordingly.

THE VALUE OF PLAINTIFF'S BRAND TRADEMARK

25. The Brand Trademark is exclusive to Plaintiff and appears prominently in Plaintiff's marketing and promotional materials for the Brand.

26. The Brand has long been popular globally

27. Plaintiff has spent millions of dollars each year on advertising, promoting, and marketing the Brand and the Brand Trademark.

28. The Brand products have garnered extensive unsolicited publicity due to their high quality and innovative designs.

29. The Brand and its trademark have gained widespread recognition across the United States, including in Illinois.

30. Plaintiff operates an e-commerce website where it promotes and sells authentic Brand products at BrandName.com. Sales of genuine Brand products through Plaintiff's website constitute a significant part of the company's business.

31. The Brand Trademark is distinctive when applied to the company's Brand-identified products, which signifies to the purchaser that such products come from Plaintiff, are genuine merchandise offered for sale by the company, and are manufactured to the company's quality standards.

32. The Brand Trademark has gained fame and recognition, which has only increased its inherent distinctiveness. Therefore, the goodwill associated with the Brand Trademark is of immeasurable and priceless value to Plaintiff.

33. No Defendant is authorized or licensed to use the Brand Trademark in connection with offering for sale or the sale of any products, including the Counterfeit Products.

34. Plaintiff is forced to hire and compensate the below-signed counsel to enforce its Trademark.

DEFENDANT'S UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

35. The success of the Brand has resulted in significant counterfeiting of the Brand Trademark.

36. In recent years, Plaintiff has identified many fully interactive e-commerce stores offering counterfeit products on online marketplace platforms such as Walmart, Amazon, eBay, AliExpress, Alibaba, Wish.com, Walmart, Etsy, DHgate, and Temu, including the one operated by the Defendant.

37. The Defendant targets consumers in Illinois, within this judicial district, and across the United States.

38. Counterfeiters like Defendant reduce the risk of getting caught and their websites being removed from an e-commerce platform by setting up multiple virtual storefronts in advance.

39. Since platforms generally do not require a seller on a third-party marketplace to identify the underlying business entity, counterfeiters like Defendant can create multiple profiles that may seem unrelated, even though they are often owned and operated by the same entity.

40. E-commerce platforms create bureaucratic or technical hurdles in helping brand owners to locate or identify sources of counterfeiters similar to the Defendant.

41. Defendant facilitates sales by falsely claiming the appearance of an authorized seller of the Brand Trademark.

42. Defendant appears sophisticated and accepts payment in United States currency and/or funds from United States bank accounts via credit cards, Walmart Pay, and/or PayPal.

43. Defendant's store includes content and images that make it very difficult for consumers to distinguish such stores from an authorized retailer.

44. Plaintiff has not licensed or authorized Defendant to use the Brand Trademark.

45. Defendant is not authorized to sell or resell authentic Brand products.

46. Defendant deceives unaware consumers by using the Brand Trademark without permission within their content, text, Search Engine Optimization (“SEO”) terms, and/or meta tags on its Online Marketplace.

47. E-commerce store operators like the Defendant often commit fraud when creating identities, such as Seller Aliases, by providing false, misleading, or incomplete information to e-commerce platforms to hide their real identities and the scope of their activities.

48. E-commerce store operators like the Defendant are constantly communicating with each other and regularly participating in qq.com chat rooms and on websites such as www.SellerDefense.cn and kuajingvs.com to discuss tactics for managing multiple accounts, avoiding detection, the status of ongoing intellectual property cases, and potential new enforcement lawsuits.

49. Counterfeiters like Defendant often use multiple Seller Aliases and payment accounts to continue their operations despite Plaintiff’s enforcement efforts.

50. E-commerce store operators like Defendant maintain offshore accounts and regularly transfer funds from their U.S. financial accounts to offshore accounts outside this Court's jurisdiction to avoid paying any monetary judgment awarded to the Plaintiff.

51. Analysis of transaction logs from similar cases indicates that offshore counterfeiters frequently transfer funds from U.S.-based accounts to offshore accounts beyond this Court’s jurisdiction.

52. Defendant, without any authorization or license from Plaintiff, is knowingly and willfully using and continues to use the Brand Trademark in connection with advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and selling Counterfeit Products into the United States via the Internet.

53. Defendant's unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark in connection with advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and selling Counterfeit Products has caused, and is likely to cause, confusion, mistake, and deception among consumers. It also irreparably harms Plaintiff by damaging the company's goodwill, reputation, and the value of its Brand Trademark.

COUNT I

TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND COUNTERFEITING (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

54. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 53, above.

55. This is a trademark infringement action brought against Defendant for its unauthorized use in commerce of Plaintiff's Brand Trademark in connection with offering for sale, sale, distribution, and/or advertising the Counterfeit Products.

56. Plaintiff's Brand Trademark is a highly distinctive mark. Consumers have come to expect the highest quality from products offered, sold, or marketed bearing Plaintiff's Brand and/or the Brand Trademark.

57. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of the Brand Trademark. Plaintiff's Registration issued by the USPTO is valid, current, and in full force and effect. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the United States Registration Certificate issued by the USPTO for the Brand Trademark. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 provides links to infringing uses of the Modlily Trademark on the Defendant's Online Store.

58. Defendant has sold, offered to sell, marketed, distributed, and advertised, and are still selling, offering to sell, marketing, distributing, and advertising the Counterfeit Products using the Brand Trademark without Plaintiff's authorization, license, or permission to do so.

59. The Defendant is aware of the Plaintiff's rights in the Brand Trademark and is intentionally infringing by using the Brand Trademark to sell, promote, distribute, and offer for sale the Counterfeit Products.

60. Defendant's deliberate, intentional, and unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark can be inferred from their sale of the Counterfeit Products, which closely resemble authentic Brand products offered by Plaintiff but are sold at a lower price and are of inferior quality.

61. The deliberate and intentional use of the Brand Trademark to sell, promote, distribute, and offer for sale the Counterfeit Products is likely to cause confusion, mistake, and deception about the origin and quality of the Counterfeit Products among the public and consumers seeking authentic Brand products from Plaintiff.

62. Defendant's activities constitute willful trademark infringement and counterfeiting under Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

63. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and if the Defendant's actions are not stopped, the Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill associated with its well-known Brand Trademarks.

64. The injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff have been directly and proximally caused by Defendant's unauthorized use, advertisement, promotion, offer to sell, and sale of the Brand Trademark in connection with the Counterfeit Products.

65. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages, disgorgement of the Defendant's profits, and the costs of the suit.

66. Plaintiff is also entitled to entry of temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief against Defendant.

67. To the extent authorized under the Lanham Act, an award of statutory damages for Defendant's sale of the Counterfeit Products using the Brand Trademark intentionally and willfully without Plaintiff's authorization.

68. Additionally, the Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs due to the Defendant's intentional and willful infringement of the Brand Trademark, making it an exceptional case.

COUNT II

UNFAIR COMPETITION (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

69. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in the Paragraphs 1 through 53, above.

70. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of the Brand Trademark.

71. Defendant has sold, offered to sell, marketed, distributed, and advertised, and is still selling, offering to sell, marketing, distributing, and advertising the Counterfeit Products using the Brand Trademark without Plaintiff's authorization, license, or permission to do so.

72. Based on information and belief, Defendant is aware of Plaintiff's rights in the Brand Trademark. Defendant is knowingly infringing and intentionally using the Brand Trademark to sell, advertise, distribute, and offer for sale the Counterfeit Products.

73. The Defendant's deliberate, intentional, and unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark can be inferred from their sale of the Counterfeit Products, which closely resemble authentic Brand products offered by the plaintiff but are sold at a lower price and are of inferior quality.

74. Defendant's willful, intentional, and unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark to sell, advertise, distribute, and offer for sale the Counterfeit Products is likely to cause confusion, mistake, and deception about the origin and quality of the Counterfeit Products among the public and consumers who want to buy genuine Brand products from the Plaintiff.

75. Defendant's conduct amounts to unfair competition in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(B).

76. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and if the Defendant's actions are not enjoined, the Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill associated with its well-known Brand Trademarks.

77. The injuries and damages experienced by Plaintiff were directly and proximately caused by Defendant's unauthorized use, advertisement, promotion, offer to sell, and sale of the Brand Trademark in connection with the Counterfeit Products.

78. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages, disgorgement of the Defendant's profits, and the costs of the suit.

79. Plaintiff is also entitled to entry of temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief against Defendant.

80. Additionally, Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs as an exceptional case due to Defendant's intentional, willful violation of the rights granted in and to the Brand Trademark.

COUNT III

FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

81. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in the Paragraphs 1 through 53, above.

82. The Defendant's promotion, marketing, offering for sale, and sale of counterfeit products using the Brand Trademark without authorization has caused and continues to cause a likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception among the public regarding their affiliation, connection, or association with the plaintiff, or the origin, sponsorship, or approval of the defendant's counterfeit products by the plaintiff.

83. By using the Brand Trademark with the sale of counterfeit products, the Defendant created a false designation of origin and a misleading representation of fact concerning the origin and sponsorship of the counterfeit items.

84. The Defendant's false designation of origin and misrepresentation of fact regarding the origin and/or sponsorship of the Counterfeit Products to the public constitute a deliberate violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(B).

85. The injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff were, and continue to be, directly and proximately caused by Defendant's unauthorized use, advertisement, promotion, offer to sell, and sale of the Brand Trademark in connection with the Counterfeit Products.

86. Plaintiff has no adequate legal remedy, and if the Defendant's actions are not stopped, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable damage to its reputation and the goodwill associated with its well-known Brand Trademark.

87. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages, disgorgement of the Defendant's profits, and the costs of the suit.

88. Plaintiff is also entitled to entry of temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief against Defendant.

89. Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs because this case is exceptional, due to Defendant's intentional and willful violation of the rights granted by and to the Brand Trademarks.

COUNT IV

VIOLATION OF ILLINOIS UNIFORM DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT
(815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.)

90. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in the Paragraphs 1 through 53, above.

91. Defendant has engaged in acts violating Illinois law, including, but not limited to, passing its knockoff products as those of Plaintiff's Brand products through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark.

92. Passing off Counterfeit Products causes confusion or misunderstanding about the source of the goods, creates a false impression of an affiliation, connection, or association with genuine Brand products, falsely claims that their products are approved by the Plaintiff when they are not, and involves other conduct that promotes confusion or misunderstanding among the public.

93. Defendant's actions were done intentionally, willfully, and with knowledge of Plaintiff's rights in and to the Brand Trademark.

94. The ongoing actions of the Defendant intentionally violate the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

95. Plaintiff has no adequate legal remedy, and Defendant's actions have caused damage to its Brand's reputation and goodwill. Unless the Court issues an injunction, Plaintiff will continue to suffer future irreparable harm caused by the Defendant's unlawful conduct.

96. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to entry of temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief against Defendant.

97. Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs due to the Defendant's intentional and willful violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:

1. That Defendant, its affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently enjoined and restrained from:

a. using Plaintiff's Brand Trademark or any reproductions, counterfeit copies, or colorable imitations thereof in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product, including within the content, text, SEO terms, and/or meta tags for their Online Marketplaces, that is not a genuine Brand product or is not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with its registered Brand Trademark;

b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Brand product or any other product produced by Plaintiff by using the Brand Trademark to sell and offer for sale such products that are not Plaintiff's or not produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff;

c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendant's inferior products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiff or its Brand;

d. further infringing the Brand Trademark and damaging Plaintiff's Brand's reputation and goodwill;

e. otherwise competing unfairly with Plaintiff through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark in any manner;

f. shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring, or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory sold or offered for sale through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark;

g. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Defendant's stores on Defendant's Online Marketplaces or the Platform, or any other domain name or online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defendant could continue to sell knockoff Brand products through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark; and

h. operating and/or hosting websites at the Defendant's Online Marketplace and any other domain names registered or operated by Defendant that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark.

2. That the Defendant, within fourteen (14) days after service of judgment with notice of entry thereof upon them, be required to file with the Court and serve upon Plaintiff a written report under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which Defendant has complied with paragraph 1 above;

3. Entry of an Order that, upon Plaintiff's request, those in privity with Defendant and those with notice of the injunction, including AliExpress, Walmart, Amazon, DHgate, eBay, Temu, and Wish, social media platforms such as Facebook, YouTube, LinkedIn, Twitter, Internet search engines such as Google, Bing, and Yahoo, web hosts for the Defendant's Online Stores, and domain name registrar, shall:

a. disable and cease providing services for any accounts through which Defendant engages in the sale of knockoff Brand products by using, without authorization, the Brand Trademark, including any accounts associated with the Defendant;

b. disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendant that display the Brand Trademark; and

c. take all necessary steps to prevent links to Defendant's Online Marketplace identified on "Exhibit 2" from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing links to Defendant's domain names from any search index.

4. That Defendant accounts for and pays to Plaintiff all profits realized by them through the unauthorized use of the Brand Trademark.

5. An award for Plaintiff's actual damages.

6. An award of statutory damages against Defendant for its intentional and willful violation of the Lanham Act through their sale of the Counterfeit Products using Plaintiff's Brand Trademark to do so without authorization.

7. An award for enhanced statutory damages for Defendant's intentional and willful violation of the Lanham Act.

8. That Plaintiff be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees based on this being an exceptional case under the Lanham Act and/or for the intentional and willful violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

9. An award of Plaintiff's costs associated with commencing this action.

10. An award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as permitted by rule, statute, law, or otherwise.

11. Award for such other relief that this Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues so triable pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

- First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.
- Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

- You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
