NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Sunday, March 29, 2026:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable April M. Perry: Plaintiff's motion for default judgment [38] will be heard 4/8/2026 at 10:00 a.m. The Court must make a reasoned, evidence-based, and individualized assessment of damages for a defaulting defendant based on particularized conduct. See Dolls Kill, Inc. v. MengEryt, No. 24–2841, 2025 WL 3033729, at *2 (7th Cir. Oct. 30, 2025) (explaining that "even under a default judgment, the victor must still prove up damages, and the court must ascertain the amount of damages with reasonable certainty."); Estee Lauder Cosmetics Ltd. v. P'ships and Unincorporated Ass'ns Identified on Schedule A, 334 F.R.D. 182, 186 (N.D. Ill. 2020) ("[A]n online store that shows thousands of reviews for a counterfeit product probably sold much more of that product than an online store with zero reviews for it, and the more prolific seller should be tagged with a larger damages award."). It would be helpful if Plaintiff could provide the Court with additional information on the size and scope of the defendant's operations, the price range of the counterfeited products sold, whether any buyer reviews exist, and any other information that supports the statutory damages award sought. Plaintiff may file a supplemental memorandum on damages by 4/6/2026. At the hearing on 4/8/2026, Plaintiff's counsel should be prepared to address the statutory damages amount and the evidence showing that the award sought is reasonable for the defendant. Plaintiff must serve a copy of its motion for default judgment upon the defendant within two business days and promptly file proof of that service. Mailed notice. (jcc,)
